

BEGIN TRIAL OF MARYLAND MAN IN FATAL CRASH

Trial started this morning in Adams County court in the involuntary manslaughter charge against Pfc. Steven Blair Marks, 22, of Hancock, Md.

The information was placed against Marks April 14 following an early Easter Sunday morning accident six miles west of here along the Lincoln Highway in which Miss Alice Johnson, 18, of 227 W. High St., was fatally injured.

Miss Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, was a passenger in a station wagon which rolled over. The vehicle came to rest atop her. The Gettysburg firemen's rescue crew had to be summoned to remove the vehicle from her body. She had died from a crushed chest, a broken neck and fractured skull.

Members of the jury hearing the case include Eugene Kimple, Orrtanna R. D.; Miss Edna Little, 303 Main St., McSherrystown; Janet Trimmer, Biglerville R. 1; Richard M. Miller, York Springs R. 2; Thomas E. Craig, Littlestown R. 1; Dr. John B. Zinn, W. Broadway; Bertha Martz, 731 Fairview Ave.; Mrs. Edna M. Dietrich, Gettysburg R. 1; Paul W. Cluck, Gettysburg R. 3; Gail W. Sumner, Gettysburg R. 1; George Coleman, Gettysburg R. 6; and Harold M. Carson Sr., Fairfield R. 1.

Wednesday afternoon a jury was drawn to hear the charge of corrupting the morals of a minor brought against George Erb Jr., Hanover R. 5. Immediately after the jury was sworn Erb entered a plea of guilty to the charge.

George Richard Hunter, Baltimore, charged with violation of the firearms act, assault and battery, burglary and unlawful entry, entered pleas of nolo contendere to those charges.

MASTERS NAMED
Attorney Eugene V. Bulleit was appointed master in the divorce action of Leroy Charles Milhimes against Grace Irene Milhimes.

Attorney Franklin R. Bigham was appointed master in the divorce action of Doris J. Fox, 101 Springs Ave., against Robert W. Fox, 123 Baltimore St.

TEACHERS TO MEET TUESDAY AT KEEFAUVER
With schools in the Gettysburg Joint School district scheduled to open next Wednesday morning, teachers will report for preschool meetings on Tuesday.

All teachers will attend the afternoon sessions while new teachers have been asked to attend a morning meeting at Keefauver's Elementary School.

The morning meeting will be opened at 8:30 o'clock with remarks by Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle and a welcome to the new teachers from Oren H. Wilson, president of the joint school board.

Richard A. Folkenroth, elementary coordinator, will introduce the elementary teachers; Paul R. Mehring, assistant junior high school principal, the junior high teachers, and Charles Tressler, the senior high school principal, will present the senior high school teachers.

FINAL PREPARATIONS
Miss Jean Biggs, president of the local branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association, will speak briefly and will be followed by Kenneth G. Reinhart Jr., school secretary and business manager.

There will be an explanation of a group life insurance plan and then the elementary, junior high and senior high teachers will go into separate meetings.

All teachers will report for lunch at noon at the Keefauver cafeteria.

The afternoon session for all teachers will begin at 1 o'clock in the all-purpose room at the Keefauver School with devotions by the Rev. John S. Bishop, associate pastor of St. James Lutheran Church. Superintendent Riegle, Miss Biggs and Mr. Reinhart will speak again and then separate sessions for grade, junior high and senior high teachers will be conducted from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. at which time all teachers will go to their respective homes to prepare for the opening of schools the next morning.

Man In Hospital After Car Crash

Carl E. Schultz, 21, Biglerville R. 1, was taken to Warner Hospital about 7 o'clock this morning after his car struck one operated by Betty Jane Motkoski, 39, Orrtanna R. 1, on a township road nine miles west of Gettysburg. Schultz is suffering from contusions of the back, according to hospital reports. The other driver was not injured.

State police investigating the accident, which occurred at 6:10 o'clock, said that Schultz failed to yield one half of the road. Schultz was traveling east on Twp. route 353 when he struck the Motkoski car, traveling west.

PLAN QUEEN PAGEANT ON OCTOBER 29

Gettysburg's Halloween committee met Wednesday evening in the VFW home, E. Middle St., with Mrs. Edith Bushman, vice president, in charge and 22 members present.

The queen's pageant general chairman, Gerald Bixler, reported the pageant will be held on October 29 in the Gettysburg Junior High School at 8 p.m. Tickets will be on sale for adults $1, children 50 cents. A queen chosen from many applicants will reign during the Halloween festivities. Prizes will be awarded the queen and the runner-up. A gift will be given to each of the 12 finalists.

Dr. Betty Gregg reported on the parade judging committee. Ray Thompson gave the report on the poster contest which is incomplete until after the opening of school.

SEEK PRIZE MONEY
Evelyn Rose of the finance committee gave a report and presented a letter for the committee to approve. Contributions toward the prize money and expenses of the parade may be sent to Atty. S. M. Raffensperger, Adams County National Bank building.

Irvin Seilhamer, chairman of the block party, announced an indoor block party will be held with the place to be announced later. A dance band will be provided.

General Parade Chairman William Ditzler announced the annual Halloween Parade will be held Wednesday evening, October 30, at 7:30 with the rain date to be Thursday, October 31. The parade will form in the Springs Ave. area. Invitation cards will be sent out the middle of September. It was announced that this year, in addition to Halloween theme floats, there are prizes and a class for beauty floats.

The next general meeting of the Halloween committee will be held October 2 at 8 p.m. at the Youth Center, North Washington St.

ISSUED LICENSES
The following marriage licenses have been issued at the courthouse in Westminster: Joseph G. Miller and Carol A. Sweeney, Taneytown R. 1; Carl W. Myers and Sandra A. Reinhold, York Springs R. 2; Joseph E. Hartman, Aspers R. 1, and Rosalie K. McCaslin, Biglerville R. 1; Francis D. Palmer, Abbottstown, and Dorothy M. Kessel, New Oxford.

JAR STARTS FIRE
Fire companies from Heidlersburg and York Springs were called Wednesday afternoon to extinguish a grass fire in a field at the Charlotte Slaybaugh property between Five Points and Heidlersburg. The blaze, which burned over an acre and a half, started from the sun shining on a glass jar which exploded, firemen said.

Push Efforts To Reach Bova Unheard From In Coal Mine

By STANFORD H. BENJAMIN
HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—Hope of finding Louis Bova alive soon flickered for a moment today, then died out, as rescuers probed with renewed determination for the miner's fate through four separate shafts.

The crews were electrified for an instant when Daniel Bova, a brother of the 34-year-old Louis, said he thought he heard a voice calling out weakly "Hello, hello," over a sensitive microphone lowered into one hole.

Bova was entombed Aug. 13 more than 300 feet down in the nearby Shepton coal mine with David Fellin, 58, and Henry Throne, 28. Fellin and Throne were recuperating in Hazleton State Hospital after their dramatic rescue early Tuesday.

ONLY SIFTING SAND
A tape recording of the sound Daniel Bova was played back, with the volume increased. It turned out to be only sand sifting down an underground slope.

Ike Reviews Youth Brigade

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower reviews the Gray contingent of the Blue and Gray Youth Brigade from Hagerstown as they presented arms for his inspection. The youngsters, ranging in age from six to 12, passed in review before Gen. Eisenhower as he stood at the entrance of his driveway on W. Stevens St. The former President broke into a broad smile as the youths marched down the street to the roll of drums. (Times photo)

TWO MANIKIN WIGS STOLEN; MAN IS JAILED

A 23-year-old Middleburg, Pa., soldier stationed at Ft. Belvoir, Va., was charged by borough police this morning with burglary and larceny of two manikin wigs from two apparel shops on Chambersburg St. early this morning.

Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder set bail at $1,000 for Dickson N. Lenig, who was arrested at 2:35 o'clock this morning after Officers Raymond Menges and Russell Porter apprehended the man on Chambersburg St. moments after he had broken the windows of the Jack and Jill and the Modern Miss shops and had removed the wigs from display manikins in the show windows.

Police officers were not aware that the man had broken a window of the Modern Miss Shop and had removed a blonde wig from a manikin in the display window until 9:15 this morning when Mrs. Mary Stock discovered the damage when she opened the shop for business.

SPOTTED BY OFFICERS
The officers were attracted to the man's movements as they were patrolling Chambersburg St. and spotted a car with its motor running parked in front of Grant's store, across the street from the Modern Miss shop. As they stopped behind the parked auto, they saw Lenig emerge from the Jack and Jill entrance carrying a lug wrench and hiding something under his coat.

As they watched, he threw the wrench and an object he was carrying into the doorway of Blocher's Jewelry store. When the officers apprehended Lenig, he denied having broken the large front window at Jack and Jill, despite the fact that he suffered minor cuts of the arms, apparently from the slivers of glass which shattered over him when he struck the window with the wrench.

Upon investigation, police found a blonde wig from the Modern Miss Shop in the Blocher doorway, but so far have been unable to locate a child's brunette wig missing from the Jack and Jill shop. The wigs are valued at $17.95 each.

$200 DAMAGE BILL
Lenig told police that his wife and three-month-old child live with her parents in Middleburg and that he had rented the car from a rental agency in Washington to visit his wife. He was due (Continued On Page 2)

Impressive Rights March Dramatizes Negro Plight, Aims At Passage Of Bill

By STANLEY MEISLER
WASHINGTON (AP)—The historic civil rights march on Washington—massive and orderly and moving — has dramatized the wants of Negroes in America, but leaders still faced the task today of trying to turn drama into action.

Speaker after speaker told the 200,000 Negro and white sympathizers massed in front of the Lincoln Memorial Wednesday that their demonstration was no more than a beginning.

"Those who hope that the Negro needed to blow off steam and will now be content," said the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., "will have a rude awakening if the nation returns to business as usual."

The estimate of the size of the audience came from Police Chief Robert V. Murray. He described it as "the largest crowd of participants in any Washington event" in his memory, and possibly the greatest number taking active part in an event in the capital's history.

Demonstrators and their leaders made it clear that one sign of progress, in their view, would be congressional approval of President Kennedy's civil rights bill. But there was no evidence that the demonstration would move the Congress into any faster consideration of the bill.

Kennedy like the civil rights leaders, also talked in terms of a beginning. He met with King and the other civil rights leaders after the demonstration and said, "We have a long way yet to travel."

But the President also said "the cause of 20 million Negroes has been advanced by the program so appropriately before the nation's shrine to the Great Emancipator."

QUIET DIGNITY
Kennedy, in his statement, spoke of the demonstration's "quiet dignity."

Lt. and Mrs. Keith B. Wolff, Fort Campbell, Ky., a daughter, Tuesday at the Fort Campbell Hospital. This is their first child. Both parents are formerly of Adams County.

Drag Racer Is Lodged In Jail
Larry D. Lefler, 21, Fairfield R. 2, was placed in the county jail in default of bail Wednesday afternoon on charges of drag racing and driving during suspension.

Justice of the Peace John Whitman placed bail at $500 for each of the charges after Lefler had pleaded guilty before him to the information filed by state police.

Lefler was alleged to have been drag racing with Myrl N. Berkheiser, Fairfield R. 2, who pleaded guilty Tuesday evening before Justice Whitman to a drag racing charge and entered bail for $500 for appearance at sentence court.

STAG TONIGHT
Gettysburg Country Club will hold its annual Calcutta Stag tonight at the clubhouse. The stag will start at 8 with the Calcutta scheduled for 9 o'clock. Flights and pairings will be announced for the annual golf championship of the club.

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL
Joseph J. Ford, 52, 48 Chambersburg St., was admitted to Warner Hospital by ambulance Wednesday night at 11:50 o'clock after he fell through a glass door at the Town House, Carlisle St. He suffered lacerations of the face.

Historians Plan Tour On Tuesday

Members of the Adams County Historical Society have been notified of plans for a field trip next Tuesday evening to two Low Dutch burial grounds in the county. One of them is located along the Hanover Rd. and the other is east of Hunterstown.

Both of them have been recently restored under the direction of the society's committee on neglected cemeteries.

The historians will leave from Keefauver School at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday evening, according to notices sent out by Program Chairman William C. Darrah.

IKE INSPECTS YOUTH BRIGADE DRESS PARADE

Forty-three members of the Blue and Gray Youth Brigade of Hagerstown trooped their colors and passed in review before General Dwight D. Eisenhower this afternoon at 12:45 o'clock as the former President stood at attention at his driveway entrance on Stevens St.

The youngsters from six to 12 years of age marched in two units, one blue and one gray, down W. Stevens St. with two flagbearers, Eugene Lynch and David Rice, carrying the United States and Maryland flags. Two drummers led the gray contingent.

After the "troops" halted and presented arms, Sgt. John Songer, U. S. Army recruiting sergeant in Hagerstown, led General Eisenhower as he inspected the ranks, chatting with the youths as he passed by.

PRETTY GOOD SOLDIERS
"They're pretty good soldiers," Eisenhower said as he concluded the inspection.

Following the review, witnessed by a hundred or so persons, the Youth Brigade marched up Carlisle St. to the Hotel Gettysburg for lunch.

The brigade was formed two years ago to greet the former president when he rededicated the Confederate Cemetery at Hagerstown. Today's parade was to mark that anniversary and answer the question: "Will we ever see General Eisenhower again?"

Earlier this morning the youths visited the Visitor Center, the Cyclorama, museums and other exhibits. After lunch Dr. Frederick E. Tilberg, park historian, was to conduct a tour of the battlefield, including Little Round Top, Devil's Den, the Eternal Light Peace Memorial and the National Cemetery.

Eisenhower evidently enjoyed the parade, smiling broadly as the youths, some of them no taller than four feet, marched past with their miniature rifles.

PLAN WATER SHOW
The 15 Red Cross instructors and aides who taught the Red Cross swimming classes at Walter's Pool, McSherrystown, will present a special water show on a Japanese theme this evening from 7:30 to 9 o'clock at the pool in McSherrystown. Miss Peggy McDermitt, Gettysburg R. D., head of the instructors, has announced.

LOCAL RIFLEMAN
Robert Ditchburn, Gettysburg R. 4, is one of 40 riflemen remaining in competition for selection for the team which will represent Pennsylvania in the flintlock match with Kentucky riflemen Saturday, September 28, at the Daniel Boone homestead near Reading.

EXAMINED BY DOCTOR
Officer Carbaugh said he arrested Hoffman May 18 at 7:30 p.m. when he saw Hoffman's car go off the side of the road about five times and across the center of the highway twice. When he smelled alcohol on the breath of Hoffman he took him to the War-

HOSPITAL REPORT
Admissions: Mrs. Michael Vandetti Jr., R. 4; Mrs. Heriberto D. Casanova, R. 2; Mrs. Edward Ridenour, Emmitsburg R. 1; Ross M. King, Orrtanna; Joseph J. Ford, 48 Chambersburg St.; Mrs. Kenneth W. Grey, Westminster R. 1.

Zimmer and infant son, New Oxford R. 2.

TWO RESCUED
The blast trapped 25 men in Texas Gulf Sulphur Co.'s $35 million potash mine. Two were rescued Wednesday in good condition.

They said five of their companions were alive after the blast, barricaded behind debris about 200 feet into one of two tunnels extending laterally and downward from the main shaft.

Fate of the 10 remaining miners was unknown.

NOT GIVING UP
Nelson blamed carbon monoxide for the miners' deaths.

"We are not abandoning hope," Nelson said.

"We have been unsuccessful in attempts to reach the five men believed to be alive behind a barricade. . . . We plan to go back to our original plan of establishing a fresh air base at the bottom of the shaft from which we can work. . . . We should have followed this procedure 24 hours ago," he added.

RESTORE AIR LINE
During the night, Nelson said rescue crews succeeded in restoring the compressed air line leading to the five barricaded miners.

South Mountain Fair To Open Tuesday; Rodeo Will Highlight Amusement Bill

ST. JOSEPH'S SET TO HONOR MRS. KENNEDY

St. Joseph College, Emmitsburg, will honor its foundress, Blessed Elizabeth Ann Seton, at an academic convocation to be held on Saturday, October 5. Honorary degrees of Doctor of Laws will be conferred on His Excellency, the Most Rev. Lawrence J. Shehan, D.D., archbishop of Baltimore; Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy, mother of President Kennedy, and Miss Sarah Christie, educator.

Sister Rosemary Pfaff, president of the college, stated that the candidates for the honorary degrees were selected because their lives in the modern world are related in a significant manner to the life of the recently beatified foundress who is the first American-born person to be so honored by the church.

Archbishop Shehan will be singularly honored as present day successor to Archbishop Carroll, friend and advisor of Mrs. Seton, who guided her into the church, counseled her through her early trials and admired her holiness.

OUTSTANDING MOTHER
"A model of loving devotion and dedication to her children and family, reflecting her staunch Catholic faith and heritage," Mrs. Joseph P. Kennedy has been selected as "outstanding mother."

Miss Sarah Christie, a graduate of St. Joseph College, class of 1925, is assistant superintendent of schools in New Jersey. Typifying Mother Seton's role as an educator, Miss Christie has been chosen as "exemplar of the goals and ideals which St. Joseph has endeavored to instill in its students from the days of Mother Seton to the present time."

Elizabeth Ann Seton, a widow whose devotion to her five children is legendary and whose chief concern was their care and education, founded the school for Catholic children in 1809 in St. Joseph's Valley, as a means of support for her children. The school was the first free Catholic school in America and prototype of the parochial school system. It was also the foundation of the college which plans to honor her.

Steady Demand For Gettysburg Stamp

The Post Office Department has reported that there were 600,205 first day covers cancelled at Gettysburg in preparation for the first day of issue of the five-cent Gettysburg commemorative postage stamp on July 1 and on the day of issue.

The same report showed that there were 997,733 of the commemorative stamps sold on the first day of issue. Acting Postmaster Charles W. Pentz said that since July 1 between 50,000 and 55,000 of the Gettysburg centennial stamps have been sold here. There is a steady demand for them at the stamp window, he said. The total printing of the Gettysburg stamp was 130 million.

Attempted Rescue Of Five Reported Survivors In Utah Mine Blast Hits Delay Today

By REID G. MILLER
and WILLIAM C. MUDGETT
MOAB, Utah (AP)—Attempts to reach five reported survivors of a potash mine explosion were temporarily suspended today to establish a fresh air pocket at the base of a 2,700 foot mine shaft.

State Mine Commissioner Casper Nelson said work on the air base may take 24 hours, and during that time rescuers would not go into the tunnels.

Nelson's announcement followed the finding of eight bodies Wednesday night, dimming the hope of tired, grimy rescue workers, who had pushed their search since the explosion Tuesday afternoon. One body was brought up today.

The blast trapped 25 men in Texas Gulf Sulphur Co.'s $35 million potash mine. Two were rescued Wednesday in good condition.

They said five of their companions were alive after the blast, barricaded behind debris about 200 feet into one of two tunnels extending laterally and downward from the main shaft.

Fate of the 10 remaining miners was unknown.

NOT GIVING UP
Nelson blamed carbon monoxide for the miners' deaths.

"We are not abandoning hope," Nelson said.

We plan to go back to our original plan of establishing a fresh air base at the bottom of the shaft from which we can work. . . . We should have followed this procedure 24 hours ago," he added.

RESTORE AIR LINE
During the night, Nelson said rescue crews succeeded in restoring the compressed air line leading to the five barricaded miners.

Final arrangements for the South Mountain Fair next week were outlined Wednesday evening at a meeting of 20 directors and department heads at the fairgrounds near Arendtsville.

President M. E. Knouse, summing up the reports at the end of the meeting said: "It looks like everything is in readiness for a big week, with a better fair than we have ever had before."

The group voted to admit school children free of charge, without tickets, daily Tuesday through Friday, up to 4 o'clock in each afternoon. In prior years tickets were distributed, but the committee held that it will save time and effort to simply follow a procedure of admitting the youngsters without bothering about tickets. After 4:00 in the evening and all day and evening Saturday, admission will be charged the children.

RODEO "TERRIFIC"
J. Glenn Miller, chairman of the entertainment committee reported that "from all information we have received concerning the rodeo to be presented at the fair next week it is terrific."

The fair formally opens Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock, but the McKinley Rodeo will not present its first performance until Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. It is currently appearing at the New York State Fair at Syracuse, N.Y., and will give its final performance there Monday evening. Tuesday will be devoted to moving to the South Mountain Fairground and thus no show is scheduled for Tuesday.

Miller said the rodeo had been signed on the recommendation of officials at the Allentown Fair who said it was one of the best shows ever given there. He added that queries to the fair at Syracuse showed the officials there of a like opinion concerning the rodeo.

Cost of the rodeo to the fair will be about $6,000, including the cost of putting up bleachers for spectators at the rodeo and other costs incidental to the presentation.

SOME SPACE AVAILABLE
To defray the cost of the rodeo, admission to the show will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children six to 12 years of age. The admission to the rodeo will be in addition to the regular admission to the grounds.

Hours were set for the entertainment Saturday. The free horse show to be presented by the Adams County 4-H Light Horse and Pony Show in the horse show ring will be held from 12 noon to 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. There will be an hour to rearrange the site for the matinee of the rodeo at 3 o'clock, for which admission will be charged. The evening hour for the rodeo will be 8 o'clock Wednesday through Saturday.

All "outside spaces" for exhibits are filled, according to reports at the meeting. Glenn Kime, in charge of the inside spaces for exhibitors, said a few spaces are still available since the decision to have no entertainment this year in the memorial auditorium has opened a large expanse for additional indoor displays.

NEEDLEWORK EXHIBITS ARE ASKED FOR FAIR

The needlework department of the South Mountain Fair today urged children to display their work at the fair, and also urged all persons who may have antique handwork in their possession to put it on display at the needlework department of the fair.

Mrs. Earl Shreckengost, Arendtsville, chairman of the home economics department said emphasis will be placed at next week's fair on children's handwork, with special consideration given to clothing entries. Special prizes will be awarded to the youngsters for their work.

In addition the committee is making every effort to increase the display of antique handwork—"the lovely needlework, crocheting and tatting that grandmother and great-grandmother made and which has become a family heirloom."

A "best of show prize" will be awarded to the items selected the best out of all the displays. Exhibits for the needlework and clothing department may be placed at the department's building at the fairgrounds Monday evening from 6 to 9 o'clock and on Tuesday from 10 in the morning to 6 in the evening.

METZ NAMED JP
Roy E. Metz, Fairfield R. 1, was appointed justice of the peace for Hamiltonban Twp. by Governor Scranton today.

Marksman Will Settle Rival Rifle Claims

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The Oct. 12 Daniel Boone festival at Barbourville, Ky., will be the site of the second and deciding match of the 1963 long rifle shoot between Kentucky and Pennsylvania.

Each state's marksmen will fire the flint-lock, muzzle-loading rifle made famous by Boone in his explorations.

The first match will be fired Sept. 28 at the Daniel Boone Homestead near Reading, Pa., where the frontiersman was born.

RIVAL CLAIM: The Kentucky - Pennsylvania shooting contests stem from a controversy over the name of the flint-lock rifle, popular in the 18th Century.

Pennsylvanians claim the gun should be called the "Pennsylvania Long Rifle" because it was made by Pennsylvania gunsmiths. Kentuckians argue they made it famous and it should be called the "Kentucky Long Rifle."

Col. George Chinn, director of the Kentucky Historical Society said Wednesday a committee chose the sites for the shoot-offs.

Police had three minor arrests — none of a demonstrator. Red Cross workers reported what they expected for a crowd so large: a share of headaches, faintings, broken bones and insect bites. Demonstrators, tired and quiet, headed home in their special buses and trains.

By 9 p.m., Washington police reported the city normal, and relieved almost all special police details from duty.

CROWDS MASSES At the height of the ceremonies, the crowds massed far east along the lengthy pool that reflects the Washington Monument and far north almost to the State Department and far south near the park ways by the Potomac River.

After the demonstration, A Philip Randolph, 74, Negro director of the march and president of the AFL-CIO Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, said: "The march has already achieved its objective. It has awakened and aroused the conscience of the nation."

There was some conflict not visible to the crowds at the Lincoln Memorial.

REWRITES SPEECH A demonstration leader, John Lewis, told a newsman later that he was forced to rewrite his speech because the Most Rev. Patrick A. O'Boyle, Roman Catholic archbishop of Washington, had objected to it.

Lewis, 23, a Negro, is chairman of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, one of the youngest and most militant of the civil rights organizations.

Lewis said Archbishop O'Boyle, who delivered the invocation, had told march leaders he would not appear on the same platform with Lewis if his prepared speech was delivered as written. Lewis said the prelate considered the speech revolutionary.

SKIPPED COMMENTS Lewis said a meeting was called of the civil rights leaders, and he was forced to give in. When he gave his speech, he left out such comments as:

"We cannot depend on any political party, for both the Democrats and the Republicans have betrayed the basic principles of

York Springs

MRS. F. E. COULSON

YORK SPRINGS — The president of the York Springs WCTU advises that anyone wishing to donate clothing, toys, accessories, dishes, bedding, curtains, etc., for the rummage sale at Gettysburg GAR hall on Friday, September 6, may bring the articles to the homes of Mrs. George Howe, Mrs. Mark Hinkle, Mrs. Raymond Bream or Mrs. Benjamin Fadenrecht, not later than Thursday evening. Baked goods may be taken to Mrs. Mark Hinkle and Mrs. George Howe until Friday noon.

Mrs. Naomi Everhart and son, John, entertained the following persons with a picnic dinner: Mr.

the Declaration of Independence. But the crowds did not know this, and they cheered and applauded the words of Lewis. But they reserved their greatest applause for King, the chairman of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

One supporter shouted out "the next president of the United States" as King began to speak.

LOUD CHEERS The Negro leader, 34, drew loud cheers when he pointed to the 20,000 or so white sympathizers in the crowd and said, "Many of our white brothers have come to realize that their destiny is tied up with our destiny and their freedom is inextricably bound to our freedom."

One of the aims of the demonstrators was to convince Congress to pass President Kennedy's civil rights bill soon. When several sympathetic congressmen were introduced, demonstrators chanted at them: "Pass the bill. Pass the bill. Pass the bill."

But there was no evidence that Congress would respond quickly to this demand. Although some legislators like Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn., said the demonstration would help pass the bill, others said it would not affect passage one way or another.

And the House Judiciary Committee, with so many members taking off for their Labor Day weekend, decided to postpone consideration of the bill until Sept. 9.

Wedding

Tyler-Myers

EMMITSBURG — Miss Linda Louise Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Myers, 401 East Main St., Emmitsburg, became the bride of Norman Edward Tyler, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Tyler, R. 1, Emmitsburg, on Saturday at 1 p.m. in St. Joseph's Catholic Church. Rev. Father Kelly performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with white gladioli and ferns. A 15-minute organ recital given by the church organist, Mrs. Louis Rosensteel, preceded the wedding. The hymn, "Mother, at Your Feet Is Kneeling," was played while the bride presented her bouquet to the Blessed Mother.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length Chantilly lace gown with a scooped neckline and long sleeves ending at the fingertips. She carried a bouquet of white pompons with white satin streamers trimmed with lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Truman Hamburg, Taneytown, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore an orchid ballerina-length gown with cummerbund effect and draped neckline. She wore matching hat and mits and carried white, blue and pink carnations trimmed with pink satin ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Myers, sister of the bride, and Miss Jeanne Myers, niece of the bride, both of Emmitsburg. They wore gowns of blue identical to the maid of honor, with matching hats, mits and bouquets.

William Tyler, Littlestown, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Terry and Sterling Myers, brothers of the bride, Emmitsburg, Joey Tyler, brother of the groom, Emmitsburg, was ring bearer. Jean Louise Sanders, friend of the bride, Emmitsburg, was flower girl and wore a nylon yellow dress and carried a basket of pompons.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. For traveling the bride chose a yellow suit with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. They will reside in North Carolina where the groom is stationed with the U. S. Marines. The bride is a 1963 graduate of St. Joseph's High School.

The bride's mother wore a mint green dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. The groom's mother wore a beige dress with black accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Out-of-town guests were present from Taneytown, New York, Littlestown, Baltimore, and Union Bridge.

Symphony Disc Is Now Available

The Gettysburg Symphony Orchestra, whose newly recorded LP high fidelity disc is available at the Hotel Gettysburg, will hold rehearsals on September 15 and 22, Dr. William Sebastian Hart, the director, announced today. Recordings are free to all who make a subscription to the orchestra.

The 90-piece orchestra will play a benefit concert for the Hanover YWCA in Southwestern High School auditorium, Hanover, on October 17 at 8:30 p.m. Featured will be the flute section of the orchestra which will play a new work, "Flute Cocktail." Ira J. Wright, a solo trumpet artist associated with Dr. Hart's musical activities for the past 20 years, will perform in "Trumpet in the Night."

Other compositions to be heard are "Dance Macabre" by Camille St. Saens, featuring Raphael Faraco, concertmaster, as violin soloist, "Pomp and Circumstance" by Sir Edward Elgar, and "Dance of the Buffoons" by Nicolai Rimsky Korsakov.

The symphony is completing its third annual series of summer open-air concerts in the Baltimore area. Attendance has averaged 4,000 over the summer.

Attempted

(Continued From Page 1) "We're guessing it (the air) is going back to the five," he said. "However, rescuers instructed to tap on the line have not received any answering sounds."

Frank Tiptie, head of Texas Gulf's potash division, said of the general rescue situation: "It doesn't look good when you find eight bodies."

PRESSING PROBLEM Another pressing problem was water rising in the main shaft. But Tiptie said the water was not backing up into the tunnels. Electricians tried to start pumps to remove the water.

"It's like working in a heavy rain," June Crawford, chief engineer of Texas Gulf, said of the rescue operations.

Tiptie said three bodies were found near the main shaft (the ones reported by the two rescued miners); three more 1,500 feet down the 3,000-foot long tunnel, and two more separately in smaller connecting tunnels near the main shaft.

After the initial success in rescuing Donald Hanna, 27, of Price, Utah, and Paul McKinney, 22, of Moab, rescuers were frustrated by a breakdown in communications, and also by gas, water, debris and other mechanical trouble.

Two Taverns Cubs Hold Weekend Camp

Cub Pack 163, Two Taverns, camped at The Pines over the weekend with 15 fathers and 25 Cub Scouts participating in pitching tents, cooking and games. The Scouts made plaster of Paris molds, which were decorated and judged. Philip Orndorff won first prize, Carl Goulden, second, and Ronald Andrew, third. At a camp fire meeting Saturday evening, the following Cubs received Bob Cat pins: Dennis Plank, Thomas McGlaughlin and Richard Andrew. Two-year service stars were presented to James Goulden, Neil Rothaupt, Samuel Lambert and Clarence Andrew.

Robert Dayhoff, Cubmaster, directed the camp-out, and was assisted by these committees: Menus and food: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schneider and Mr. and Mrs. David Goulden; activities and supplies, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rothaupt and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Andrew.

ISSUED LICENSE

A marriage license has been issued by the Clerk of Courts to Harold Frederick Weaver, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Weaver, Gettysburg R. 4, and Brenda Lou Grove, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Harold Grove, York Springs R. 2.

MILITARY RITES

Funeral services were held from the Wilson Funeral Home followed by a Requiem Mass in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Emmitsburg, Tuesday morning for Joseph Henry Timmerman, 36, of Gettysburg R. 2, who died at the Harrisburg General Hospital on Friday. The Rev. Father Louis Storms officiated and interment was made in the new St. Joseph's Catholic Cemetery, Emmitsburg.

Military rites were in charge of the American Legion of Emmitsburg with the following participating: Honor guards, Charles B. Harner, Edward Wastler, William Topper, Robert L. Myers, William Rodgers, Eugene Rodgers, Earl Topper, Joseph Geiselman; color bearers and guards, Eugene Rodgers, Edward Wastler, Donald Rodgers, Henry Filler and Robert Myers; firing squad, Clarence Shorb, Joseph Geiselman, Andrew Shorb, Charles B. Harner, George Ashbaugh Jr., Carroll Topper, Earl Topper, Clarence Orndorff, Bugler, Tommy Harbaugh; pallbearers, John Joy, Joseph Stahura, William Rodgers, Joseph Rodgers, Ralph Long and John Warthen; honorary pallbearers, members of the Emmitsburg American Legion and the VFW of Emmitsburg: R. J. McCullough, Thomas C. Harbaugh, Raymond Baker, Fern Ohler, Lumen Norris, Allen Bouey, Guy Baker Jr., and Joseph Knott.

THREE HURT IN ACCIDENT

Albert Leonard Leary, 72, 800 West Main St., Emmitsburg, a former principal at Frederick High School, was admitted to the Warner Hospital for observation following an auto accident Tuesday afternoon.

Trooper Paul R. Sanders said Leary, 72, suffered abrasions of the head and face and was complaining of severe chest pains.

Trooper Sanders said Donna Lee Clevenger, Hagerstown, operating a 1963 convertible, was traveling west on Route 77 about two and one-half miles west of Thurmont. At the intersection with the Central Park Road, he said her auto was struck head on by the Leary car traveling east on Route 77.

Police said Leary was coming around a sharp curve on the wrong side of the road.

A passenger in the Leary vehicle, Mrs. Anna P. Leary, 67, was brought to the Warner Hospital where she was treated for lacerations of the face and knee, a contusion of the left ankle, and released.

Miss Clevenger was taken to her family doctor by her family and was treated for abrasions of the face and legs. None of the passengers in the Clevenger auto was injured, police said.

Damage to each of the vehicles was placed at $700 and they were towed from the scene.

Trooper Sanders said charges in the accident are pending until he was able to talk to Leary.

Baltimore Orioles pitcher Steve Barber never had a winning season in the minor leagues. He's never had a losing season in the majors.

New Garment Plant Opened:

Opening of an additional plant by the Standard Garment Company was announced today. The new sewing factory, which will increase the output of the local concern about one-third, will start Monday with new employees handling the 50 machines installed in the new plant.

The new machines are installed in a 90 by 30 concrete block structure to the rear of 109 Chambersburg street near the main plant on North Washington street. An advertisement in today's issue of The Gettysburg Times announces the opening of the plant Monday. The management is seeking women to work at the new building.

In a few weeks, when production reaches its peak, the new plant is expected to produce about 500 dozen shirts or similar garments per week.

26-Year-Old Flag Displayed For Son: A service flag that was hung 26 years ago when his father went to war was displayed again this week for Howard W. Sheffer Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Sheffer, North Stratton street, when he reported for active duty with the U.S. Army.

The 17-year-old Sheffer youth who would have been a senior at Gettysburg high school during the coming year if he had chosen to finish his school career now, enlisted in the Navy earlier this summer. On Wednesday he reported to York and Thursday left Harrisburg for an "unannounced destination," according to word received by his parents. Sheffer won his "G" at high school last year as football team manager. Howard W. Sheffer Sr., served in the Army in World War I. He is a former commander of the local post of the American Legion.

Gettysburg Crew On Reading Win Officials' Praise: A crew of five Gettysburg men on the Reading railroad have won a compliment from the management of the road for the cleanliness and "excellent condition" in which they maintain their caboose, known as Cabin car No. 92813.

The car is used on mixed local freight trains Nos. 592 and 597 between Gettysburg and Harrisburg.

The crew members responsible for the "good housekeeping" are: Morris L. Flegle, conductor, center square; Ray M. Barnes, Carlisle street, engineer; John H. Sanders, 320 West Middle street, fireman; Charles M. Sheely, Springs avenue brakeman; and James A. Tate, 445 West Middle street, flagman.

Town's Oldest Restaurant To Close Its Doors: Gettysburg's oldest restaurant, Spangler's, on Chambersburg street, will close this evening after 32 years of continuous operation.

Mrs. John W. Spangler, who has been in charge of the establishment since the death of her husband in June, 1940, said today that war conditions make the closing necessary.

The restaurant was started in 1911 by Mr. and Mrs. Spangler at the site of the present National garage office. It was moved to the present Spangler building in 1918.

Sawing Lumber For New Factory: The Orrtanna Canning company employees are engaged in sawing lumber for the rebuilding of the canning factory to replace the cannery which burned last December.

The material is being sawed from the timber of one of the company's farms, several miles east of Orrtanna. C. H. Wolford has charge of the saw mill operations. The company expects to have the building completed in time for the sour cherry canning next year.

Today's Talk

BUSINESS

To be in business is to be in the fluid of life. Behind successful business is the inspiration for all art, science, literature and good works in this life.

Business keeps "the home fires burning," establishes our schools, hospitals, libraries, laboratories, churches, great manufacturing plants, our world commerce, and runs our governments — strange as the latter may seem to many! Business made the Rockefeller Foundation a blessing to the world; and its institute for research for knowledge toward the betterment of health and mankind, is beyond all calculation as to the good it is doing to make this world a better place in which human beings may become happier and less fearful.

It is business that is furnishing the money whereby many slums are being wiped out and the clean air and sunlight let in. It is business that is running the transportation systems and making the airplanes and automobiles through which the millions are able to enjoy life and see the wonders of this world. It is business that is keeping alive the less fortunate and enabling them to look ahead with better hope. It is business that is assuring to millions the opportunity to develop and enlarge their sphere of usefulness. It is business and business alone that can wipe out unemployment and give to each worker his share of the fruits of industry.

Stagnate business and you stagnate life! And you stagnate and clog government as well. Business is the life-blood of a nation. Throttle business and you throttle movement.

To be a business man is something! Something to make pride swell in the human breast. To own a business is an achievement. It is an achievement to inspire others to achieve — especially those who help you to achieve.

Depress business and all activities of life are depressed. Encourage it and you warm all human hearts and give color and beauty to the most ordinary pursuit.

GIVING

We gain by giving!
All things living
Take but to bestow
And every dumb thing
Gathers something
Out of the earth below
Then he gives it in a fuller measure
Back to the world's supply of treasure.

The plant that's dying,
Withered lying,
Has no more blooms to give.
Its labor's ended,
Unattended,
It soon will cease to live.
But every sturdy bush that's living
Some needed bloom to earth is giving.

So past denying
He is dying
Who gives no beauty back,
Who takes by strife
The joys of life
And hoards them in his pack,
Growth comes not from man's selfish taking
And from the needed gifts he's making.

By strange attractions
Into actions
All that we take is turned,
And what more strange is
The spirit changes
With every lesson learned
Life bids us grasp for wisdom,
treasure,
That we may give in larger measure.

Martha Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Martin, Gettysburg R. 4, returned last Thursday from White Haven, an orthopedic summer camp in the Pocono mountains, where she had spent the last eight weeks swimming, hiking and continuing water treatments that two years ago restored nearly normal use of her left leg after the child was stricken with infantile paralysis.

The girl's trip to the camp was arranged by the Crippled Children's society of Adams county and the county Infirmary Paralysis society. A spokesman for the societies today said that Martha apparently has "benefited greatly" by the two months she spent at the camp.

She was one of 92 children from many parts of the state who spent the vacation period at the resort. Adams county was permitted to send only one camper.

Martha has discarded braces she formerly used for her left leg and now requires special support for that limb only when she takes long walks.

NEIGHBORHOOD
TERRORIZED BY BERSERK MAN

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A 44-year-old plasterer, waving a gun at neighbors, disarmed two policemen and fled past a bevy of police Wednesday night before being captured in a struggle near his home.

Police said no shots were fired but that Joseph Ruk terrorized his neighbors in the city's Troy Hill section for more than an hour.

It was just two weeks ago that Pittsburgh police captured a berserk city fireman who shot three persons after barricading himself in his home less than two miles from the scene of the latest incident.

POLICE CALLED
Police quoted Ruk's wife as saying her husband came home and started pouring gasoline over the kitchen saying he was going to burn down the house.

Patrolmen James Heagy and Thomas Helfrich answered an emergency call and were met at gunpoint by Ruk. Heagy was disarmed while Helfrich slipped into the next room. But Helfrich also surrendered when Ruk threatened to kill his partner.

Ruk ordered the two officers from his home as his wife and three children fled to a neighbor's home.

ELUDED POLICE

Several carloads of police rushed to the area and flood lights quickly lit up the Ruk home. Ruk paced through his home and at one time climbed onto the roof. He left the house through the back, eluding the police who had encircled it. Police lobbed teargas into the kitchen and found the house vacant.

At one point Ruk telephoned a neighbor and told him, "I'm having a ball two miles away."

"SWELL FELLOW"

Ruk was discovered a short time later in heavy grass a half block from his home. Police said he resisted arrest but was overpowered.

Ruk was charged with pointing firearms and was admitted to St. Francis General Hospital for psychiatric observation.

Barbara Ruk described her husband as a "mild-mannered man." She could give no reason for his actions.

A neighbor told newsmen, "I'd like people to know that Joe is a real swell fellow. He's never done anything like this before."

LANCASTER CO.
MAN ELECTED

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Lancaster County Commissioner Herbert Wagaman is the new head of the Pennsylvania Association of County Commissioners.

Wagaman was elected president Wednesday in concluding sessions of the group's annual meeting in Pittsburgh. He succeeds Peter Yonavick, Berks County Commissioner.

Other new officers were Blain Mead of Warren County, first vice president; W. Fred Kohler Jr. of Northumberland County, second vice president; and James A. Green of Butler County, secretary-treasurer.

Delegates also voted to allocate funds for a full-time legislative representative in Harrisburg.

Held For Court In Highway Fatality

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP)—Robert Stanford, 28, of Lewistown has been held for grand jury action in the highway death of a Cresson woman.

A Blair County Coroner's Jury returned the ruling against Stanford following an inquest Wednesday.

Police said he was driving a truck that ran out of control down Cresson Mountain on Route 22 and smashed into a car driven by Elizabeth Mitchell, 40. Miss Mitchell was killed.

Stanford said his brakes failed in the mishap last month.

SEOUL, Korea (AP)—Former Premier Song Yo-Chan, indicted on a charge of slandering South Korea's military government, demanded today that he be tried by a civilian court.

He said he would not get a fair hearing in a court martial, as prescribed by the indictment.

GE BARGAINS
WITH UNIONS FOR CONTRACT

NEW YORK (AP)—The General Electric Co. has made its first contract proposals in three weeks of negotiations with two unions representing 81,000 employees.

The International Union of Electrical Workers, which represents 70,000 employees, said Wednesday the offer contained "a number of improvements" but that it had "serious shortcomings."

The United Electrical Workers Union, representing 11,000 employees, called the offer "wretchedly inadequate."

OFFER BASIS

Both unions, however, said the proposals offered a basis for negotiations.

The company's proposal included two pay increases of 5 to 10 cents an hour in a three-year contract. Also included were fringe benefits such as the optional use of vacation time and longer paid vacations.

Philip D. Moore, the company's chief negotiator said that, despite the unions' reaction, "We sincerely believe that we have a good offer here that can provide the basis for a settlement."

Workers now average $2.00 an hour, with variations depending on job classifications.

TWO NABBED IN GAMBLING RAID

READING, Pa. (AP)—A Reading school director and another man face gambling charges today.

A raid Wednesday which was the climax of two weeks investigation started by an anonymous tip, uncovered $15,000 worth of horse race bets in the home of William J. Sands, 50, the school director, state police said.

Sands, also business agent and secretary of the Bartenders, Hotel and Restaurant Employees Local 153, was charged with pool selling.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

ALGIERS, Algeria (AP)—The Algerian Assembly adopted the country's first constitution Wednesday night, and thus established virtual unrestricted rule by Premier Ahmed Ben Bella.

Upon expected ratification of the constitution in a national referendum, Ben Bella will be answerable to no one but his National Liberation Front, the only legal party.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union today denounced recent hit-and-run raids on Cuba and pledged continued support for Fidel Castro's regime.

But there was no mention of when Cuba might accede to Soviet wishes and sign the limited nuclear test ban treaty. All other Communist countries except those which follow Red China have signed.

LONDON (AP)—The serial numbers of many of the bank notes stolen in Britain's great train robbery were circulated widely today. Police said they were convinced most of the $7 million haul now is useless to the thieves.

Scotland Yard believes the loot from the Aug. 8 mail train ambush still is in Britain, although some of the gang's ringleaders may have fled the country.

To Erect Railing
At Crash Scene

HARRISBURG (AP)—Temporary safeguards will be put up at the scene of a fatal accident in Collegeville under an agreement between the state Highways Department and the Reading Co.

The Public Utility Commission reported on Wednesday that the state and the railroad have agreed to install protective guard fences on a narrow humped-back bridge which carries Route 29 over Reading tracks.

Last week two children were killed there when the car in which they were riding plunged through a timber guard rail on the railroad bridge approach and fell 30 feet to the tracks.

The commission said it will hold public hearings soon to adopt a permanent improvement plan and allocate costs.

TRIANGLE PLAY
AT ALLENBERRY

"The Perfect Set-Up," a cleverly written comedy about the eternal triangle, opened at the Allenberry Playhouse Monday and will play through September 7. Don Draper, the lone member of the playhouse company to appear in all of the shows this season, gets his first starring role, the very nervous, debonair young public relations counsel who thinks he is irresistible to women.

DON DRAPER

He tries to juggle a couple of romances, one with his wife, played very well by Donna Curtis, who has been starring in their musicals heretofore, and Shelly Post, an attractive newcomer with much TV and movie experience, who plays his department store buyer mistress. For this sophisticated, adult entertainment designer Al Hamilton has designed two attractive settings, one a comfortable West Chester bedroom and the other a Manhattan apartment living room.

Dodgers Lose To Reds As Giants Down Cards; 2 Top Clubs Open Crucial Series

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

It was close but no haircut for Red Patterson, the Los Angeles Dodgers exec who just might wind up wearing ribbons 'round his ringlets before the National League leaders score four runs in one inning.

Patterson, the Dodgers' assistant general manager who has vowed not to get a haircut until his team has a four-run inning, watched Cincinnati push across four runs in the sixth inning and trim Los Angeles 9-3 Wednesday night.

Jim Matoney posted his 19th victory as the Dodgers went down to their fifth defeat in seven games. The loss cut the Dodgers' lead to 5½ games over second-place San Francisco.

4 GIANT HOMERS

The Giants, who move into Los Angeles tonight for the opener of a four-game series, downed third-place St. Louis 5-3 as Tom Haller hit two homers and Chuck Hiller and Orlando Cepeda one each. The Cardinals remained 6½ games behind.

The fourth-place Philadelphia Phillies closed to within seven games of the top by edging the Chicago Cubs 8-7 for their 12th victory in 15 games. Gene Oliver hit a grand slam and two-run homer in Milwaukee's 9-1 walloping of Houston and Pittsburgh downed the New York Mets 7-2.

The Dodgers, who have managed to score only 15 runs in their last seven games, collected eight hits against Maloney, 19-6, and reliever Joey Jay, but again failed to get Patterson in the barber's chair. It's been nine days since they scored four runs in one inning.

DECISION IN 6TH

The Reds' decisive four-run sixth revolved around Don Pavletich, who had hit a homer off Johnny Podres, 11-10, in the fourth. With two on, Pavletich ripped a hard shot to third on which Tommy Davis started a double-play. However, umpire Frank Walsh ruled the ball was fielded in foul territory.

Pavletich went back to the plate and laid down a bunt. Davis fielded it, hesitated, then threw high to Jim Gilliam covering first base, and two runs scored. Singles by Johnny Edwards and Pete Rose brought in the other two runs.

GOLFERS JAM DENVER OPEN IN CASH BID

DENVER (AP) — Opportunity's doors opened wide today for pro golf's also-rans as the $40,000 Denver Open Tournament began with Denver Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Julius Boros and Gary Players.

The absence of the Big Four attracted a Denver Open record entry list of 147 pros. The field will be trimmed after Friday's round to the low 65 pros plus ties and 10 amateurs for the last two rounds Saturday and Sunday.

With golf's super-stars busy with other commitments, there was no outstanding favorite for the tourney over the Denver Country Club's 6,774-yard, par 35-35-70, tight, tree-lined course.

Finsterwald Favored

Dow Finsterwald was rated perhaps a niche above the others after copping the pro-amateur event Wednesday with a two-under-par 68, worth $500. In last year's final round over the same course he carved out a 64, but it was too late to overtake Bob Goalby who won with 277, three under par. Goalby is back to defend his title.

The par was broken Wednesday by five other pros among the 50 who teamed with 150 amateurs for the pro-am competition. George Bager, Jacky Cupit, Jay Hebert, Doug Sanders and Ken Still turned in 69. Each collected $330.

Davidson Rides Pair Of Winners

CHARLES TOWN, W. Va. — Jesse Davidson snapped out of a slump last night at Shenandoah Downs, if the night track's leading rider could have been called in a slump.

The Charles Town rider, limited to a single win in the first two nights this week, rode two winners last night to run his total to 32 for the meeting, and remain comfortably in front of the race for riding honors.

But there is no question that Davidson has slowed down during the past couple of weeks, riding only nine winners over a 12-program period, which is considerably below his normal production at this track.

DETROIT WINS 7TH STRAIGHT; 19TH FOR FORD

By JIM HACKLEMAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

They're calling Charlie Dessen the Quiet Man — but his Detroit Tigers are making the loudest noise in baseball.

Hardly a word has been heard from Dessen, one of the game's angry old men since he succeeded Bob Scheffing as manager of the slump-ridden Tigers on June 18. The normally outspoken veteran with a penchant for controversy has been the epitome of decorum. The Tigers have been roaring.

They won their seventh straight Wednesday for their best streak of the year, nipping the Los Angeles Angels 2-1. In the past two weeks, Detroit has taken 12 of 14 in a climb from ninth place to fifth in the American League. Under Dessen the Tigers are 39-30, compared to their 24-36 mark under Scheffing.

FIRST TO GET 19

Whitey Ford became the AL's first 19-game winner as the front-running New York Yankees scored three times on wild pitches by Earl Wilson and downed Boston 4-1.

Also in the AL — the Chicago White Sox broke a tie with the Minnesota for second place, sweeping a doubleheader from Cleveland, 8-3 and 3-1 behind Juan Pizarro and Eddie Fisher; and homers by Jackie Brandt and Jerry Adair in support of Milt Pappas' three-hit pitching led Baltimore over Kansas City 3-1. Washington had the day off, along with the Twins.

VICTORY FOR LARY

Frank Lary added another victory in his pitching comeback with the Tigers, with a seven-hitter against the Angels. He had a shaky start, gave up a fifth-inning homer to Jim Fregosi, then allowed just one hit the rest of the way. Lary is 4-6.

Ford, 19-7, limited the Red Sox to five hits, including Dick Stuart's 34th homer. Wilson also was stingy with the hits—five in his five innings—but generous with his wild pitches.

He uncorked one in the first inning, allowing Phil Linz to come in from third for the first Yankee run. Then in the fourth, on Wilson's second wild pitch of the inning, Clete Boyer scored from third and Linz flew all the way in from second—making it 4-1.

GI TURNCOAT FAILS TO GO TO HONG KONG

HONG KONG (AP) — Former U.S. Army Sgt. Albert C. Belhomme, a turncoat of the Korean War, failed to arrive here from Communist China today as expected.

Representatives of the Belgian consulate-general and the British Red Cross who went to the border to meet him were told by a spokesman of the (Communist) China travel agency that Belhomme would not come today. The spokesman gave no reason for the delay.

Belhomme is a Belgian who served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War. His home town in the United States was listed as Ashland, Pa.

WEDNESDAY CABLE

A Belgian consulate spokesman said Belhomme informed the consulate by cable Wednesday that he would arrive in this British colony today.

"We just don't understand why he failed to come today," the spokesman said.

He said Belhomme's entry visa to Hong Kong expires Aug. 31.

Belhomme was one of 21 American prisoners of war who refused repatriation in 1953 after the Korean War. Among the 21, 13 have returned and one died in China.

Belhomme married a Chinese girl and has four children.

CHARLESTON IS NEARING TITLE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The magic number for Charleston's Eastern League pennant aspirations had been reduced to seven.

Any combination of seven Charleston victories and Elmira losses will give the Indians the Class AA league pennant.

Charleston reduced the magic number Wednesday night by winning the rubber game of a three-game series from second-place Elmira 5-4 on a walk with the bases loaded in the ninth.

It kicked the Indians' lead to three games over the Pioneers with only 10 left to play.

In other action, third-place Springfield, 6½ games out, kept its slim pennant chances alive with a 5-2 victory over York while Binghamton beat Reading 5-2.

GHS BOOSTER CLUB STARTS FUND RAISING

New officers were elected and plans made for the annual raising of funds at a meeting of the Gettysburg High School Boosters Club Wednesday evening at the VFW Home.

Richard Finkboner was named president and George Fissel, secretary-treasurer, succeeding Henry Krick and Robert Hartman, respectively.

It was reported that a balance of $217.70 remains in the treasury with all bills paid.

The program for raising funds will follow the same pattern as in previous years. Booster Club membership tickets will be sold by members of the club for $1 each. The Varsity Club at the high school will sell tickets to students who will also receive maroon and white badges with the inscription "Gettysburg High School Booster."

Large mounted individual pictures of members of the varsity football squad will again be placed in display windows of local business establishments and at the conclusion of the football season will be given to the players.

USE OF FUNDS

All money derived in the campaign is used to pay for transportation for athletes living outside the borough and to aid in any other means in supporting the high school athletic program for all sports throughout the year.

A letter was read from George Forney, high school athletic director, thanking the group for the banquet given last year. It is planned to hold a similar banquet again this year providing sufficient funds are raised.

Board members attending the meeting included Krick, Hartman, Finkboner, Fissel, Stover Small, William Phelps, Robert Weaver, Noel Flynn, Atty. Daniel Teeter and Don Bream.

PLANES SCOUR OCEAN AREAS FOR 2 TANKERS

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Dozens of ships and planes searched the Atlantic today for two strato-tankers that vanished mysteriously at the same time, in the same area and on the same mission—a classified refueling rendezvous.

The Air Force refused to comment about the possible causes of the coincidence.

Eleven men were aboard the two huge KC135s, which were returning to Homestead Air Force Base when they lost radio contact with its tower about noon Wednesday. At that time, they were 800 miles northeast of Miami, or about 300 miles west of Bermuda.

About 35 Air Force planes—ranging from amphibian HU16 Albatrosses to T29 trainers—flew over the Atlantic during the night, their search lights playing over the water, igniting flares occasionally to light an unidentified object. Air Rescue Service headquarters in Orlando said the total might reach close to 100 planes during the day.

The Coast Guard also sent out at least five ships and many planes.

The planes, which have a range of 4,500 miles and a cruising speed of 600 miles an hour, would have run out of fuel at 6 p.m. Wednesday. Their mission, scheduled arrival time at Homestead and even the base from which they departed were classified.

McSherrystown

McSHERRYSTOWN — A dinner meeting of the officers and committee chairmen of the Parish Council of Catholic Women of the Annunciation Blessed Virgin Mary Church, McSherrystown, was held at the Victory Restaurant. Nineteen women were in attendance to make tentative plans for the 1963-64 year.

Officers for the year are: President, Mrs. Jean Noel; vice president, Mrs. Loyola Krepps; secretary, Mrs. Ronald Aspers; treasurer, Mrs. Donald Noel. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Noel.

Committees represented were: Family-parent education, Mrs. Ira Brown, Mrs. Joseph Price; Catholic charities, Miss Margaret Belz, Mrs. Ruth Yeager; social action, Mrs. Marie Klunk, Mrs. Donald Noel; hospitality, Mrs. Ralph Dewees; libraries and literature, Miss Charlotte Hagerman; spiritual development, Mrs. Richard Conrad; Civil Defense, Mrs. Marilyn Weaver; inter-American-international relations, Mrs. Eugene Wagner, Mrs. Linus Smith; immigration, Mrs. William Long; organization and development, Mrs. Richard Cashen; special diocesan activities, Mrs. Fred Smith and Mrs. Mary Staub.

The first meeting of the year will be held September 15 at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium. Installation of new officers will be conducted by Mrs. Mary Altoff, Conewago Deaneary president. The first project of the organization will be a bake sale to be held in the McSherrystown fire hall September 14 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Women of the parish are asked to donate cakes, pies, and candy.

The annual Conewago deaneary dinner will be held at Sacred Heart Basilica Hall September 26 at 7 p.m. Reservations must be made a week prior to the dinner with Mrs. Jean Noel or Miss Margaret Belz.

The speaker for the September meeting will be Dr. John A. Grant, pediatrician. Mothers of grade school children are asked to attend this meeting. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Ira Brown, Mrs. Joseph Price and Mrs. Alma Fritz.

At least the interview MIGHT go like that.

Alleged Cop Killer Turns Self In With Photographer, Woman Lawyer On Hand

EDITOR'S NOTE—The following story of the surrender of alleged killer Thomas (Rabbi Tom) Trantino, 27, wanted in connection with the slaying of two New Jersey policemen, is told by Associated Press reporter Anthony Alborelli and photographer Ray Howard, who met with the man and his woman attorney in a Manhattan tavern preceding a walk to a police station just around the corner.

NEW YORK (AP) — "I got a call from the office that this man Trantino was going to give himself up with his lawyer, Miss Enid Gerling," said Associated Press reporter Anthony Alborelli. "I was told to go to the Village Bar on First Avenue between 21st and 22nd streets," Alborelli continued. "I hurried down, parked my car in front of the station house (on East 22nd St.) I met our motorcycle messenger (George McNiven) and the photographer (Ray Howard) outside. "The three of us walked in the bar last night. There were five people in it. I saw the attorney (Miss Gerling). She called us over and asked us if we wanted a drink.

WEARS DARK GLASSES
"Sitting with her at the bar was this man (Trantino), wearing dark glasses." Howard said: "He (Trantino) was drinking a double, a martini, I think. The attorney told him to have another and brace up and get his wits about him. He took another drink.

IS INTRODUCED
"Tony (Alborelli) introduced me to the young lady lawyer and she introduced us to Trantino. While Tony was writing, getting some notes, I was talking with him (Trantino). "I took my camera off my neck and sort of hid it so the other customers wouldn't know what's going on."

Alborelli said: "She (Miss Gerling) said this man wanted to give himself up. His family asked him to give himself up but he was afraid of this Falco, but after he was shot down he decided to give himself up."

FALCO SLAIN
Frank Falco, 25, wanted in connection with the murders of two policemen in a Lodi, N.J., tavern last Monday, was slain early Wednesday by police during a battle in Falco's Manhattan hotel room. "The bartender knew nothing, it's a neighborhood bar. She (Miss Gerling) told me she wanted a photographer there to take pictures. She said (of Trantino) 'He's a wonderful guy.' "They finished their drink and we went outside and Howard popped shots."

MADE PICTURES
Said Howard: "I got my range on the camera and waited until they started walking. I made two or three shots. I gave my pictures to McNiven and he rushed them in."

Alborelli said: "The four of us walked around to the East 22nd Street station house and we walked in. We got before desk officer Lt. Frank Brill.

IS TURNED IN
"The attorney said 'You're looking for this man.' "He (Brill) says 'What for.' She says homicide. He asked him 'What's your name.' He said Trantino. He (Brill) was amazed."

Howard said: "They put him (Trantino) in a cage (cell) with another guy."

Trantino was booked on a charge of homicide and held for authorities of Hackensack, N.J. He gave his occupation as a roofer and his address as Brooklyn.

Miss Gerling told newsmen Trantino was not involved in the shooting but admitted he was at the tavern when the policemen were killed. The attorney said she knew of Trantino through a mutual acquaintance, whom she did not identify.

The victims in the Lodi, N.J., murders were police Sgt. Peter Voto, 40, and Gary Tedesco, 22, a probationary patrolman. They were forced by gunmen into the men's room of the Angel Lounge, forced to disrobe to their underwear, and then gunned down.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

SAMUEL KNOX, SURVEYOR AND FARMER

Rebecca (Hodge) Knox, the widow of Dr. Samuel Knox, as stated in last week's column, survived her husband by some 22 years but when death finally came she was buried beside him in the old Lower Marsh By 1843, the year of Rebecca Knox's death, the "crop" of grandchildren had increased amazingly but the proud grandmother listed them all in her will. The majority of the names were given in a preceding sketch — the remainder follow:—

- 13. Granddaughter — Sarah Knox.
- 14. Granddaughter — Euphemia Knox.
- 15. Grandson — Charles M. Knox.

The "Family Bible" was to go to "my grandson, Samuel Knox, the son of my son, Samuel Knox." Books were to be divided between two grandsons, Samuel Knox and Samuel Morrow.

Samuel Knox the son of Dr. Samuel and Rebecca Knox, was named executor of his mother's will and apparently carried out all her wishes faithfully and well. Samuel Knox, the third of the name in this country, the son of Dr. Samuel and Rebecca (Hodge) Knox, was born December 21, 1794, and died May 26, 1845. He married Margaret Witherow, the daughter of Samuel and Rachel (McClean) Witherow, of Carroll's Tract, this County. Margaret (Witherow) Knox was born October 9, 1803, and died October 19, 1847. She is buried with her husband and other members of the Knox family in the Lower Marsh Creek graveyard.

HAD 10 CHILDREN

Samuel (III) and Margaret (Witherow) Knox were the parents of 10 children — Seven daughters and three sons — as follows:—

- 1. Rachel Rebecca (4) Knox — born April 19, 1822 — married James H. Marshall.

Knox. This concludes, for the time being, the notes on the Knox family. If any additional data should be unearthed it will be included in a future column.

The next clan, with forbears buried in the Lower Marsh Creek Churchyard, to be "written up" in this series, will be that of the Rev. Alexander Dobbin. These notes will be continued next week.

Add vanilla to cool sugar syrup and use to sweeten fresh fruit cups for delectable flavor. The vanilla is particularly delicious with fresh peaches — pared and sliced.

DEATHS

LONDON (AP) — Sir Charles Hambro, 65, banker and wartime cloak-and-dagger operations organizer, died Wednesday after an illness of a year. Hambro, chairman of Hambros Bank Ltd., largest of London's investment banks, was entrusted with early confidential information on the atom bomb and credited with helping disrupt Nazi nuclear experimentation.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—David I. Blumenstock, 49, University of California geography professor and authority on South Pacific Islands, died Wednesday.

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) — Nello Teer, 75, chairman of the board of a multimillion-dollar construction company, died Wednesday. He had been confined to a hospital since he was injured in an automobile accident several weeks ago. He was executive vice president of the Durham and Southern Railway, a 62-mile line which runs from Durham to Dunn, N.C.

TWO FOR TAMMY

NEW YORK (AP) — Tammy Grimes, who won stardom in "The Unsinkable Molly Brown," has signed to appear in two plays for David Merrick. The shows are "Rattle for a Simple Man" and "Time of the Barracuda." The first is a comedy currently on view in London. The local casting has not been completed. Appearing with her in the other item, a new work, will be Laurence Harvey.

Congress Keeps Trails In U.S. Rolling; See Trouble

By JOHN KOENIG JR. WASHINGTON (AP) — The trains were rolling today, but there were caution lights ahead. What kept them rolling was strike-blocking legislation quickly enacted Wednesday by Congress and signed into law by President Kennedy.

What touches off the note of caution is the view in several quarters that the legislation only serves to delay a future outbreak of discord and a subsequent strike threat.

BEAT THE CLOCK

Racing against the clock—the strike had been set for 12:01 a.m. Eastern Standard Time today—and after four hours of debate, the House at 4:42 p.m. Wednesday approved a resolution passed by the Senate Tuesday night calling for binding arbitration of the two major issues in dispute. The House vote was 236 to 66.

Minutes later the threat of a nationwide rail strike was removed. The carriers announced they were taking down notices of new work rules and the heads of the five rail brotherhoods announced they were canceling their strike plans.

Then, at 6:14 p.m., Kennedy signed the measure.

Having previously declared a railroad strike at this time "intolerable," the President said the legislation "reaffirmed the essential priority of the public interest over any narrower interest."

CAREFUL STATEMENT

peared, however, to be couched in terms designed to ward off future criticism.

For even as the bill rolled through Congress—after weeks of indecision and numerous but fruitless government-directed negotiating sessions—there were rumors that it had stalled off a strike for possibly only six months. Also, there was union criticism that compulsory arbitration of the two issues was a "regrettable and backward step."

The two issues to be arbitrated are the 32,000 firemen's jobs considered unessential by the carriers and regulation of the number of men assigned to train crews.

OTHER ISSUES

The law creates a seven-member arbitration board which would have a maximum of 180 days to rule on the two key issues.

Other issues viewed as lesser ones are to be taken up by the unions and the carriers.

The issues to be left to negotiation include such things as wage structure and job security. The arbitration board will include two members selected by rail management, two by the rail unions and three public members to be named by the two sides.

COMMON DRUG PEPS UP AGED FOLK IN TESTS

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A common drug — controversially used as an elixir for aging people — seems to gradually pep up their minds and helps them gain weight, a Minnesota psychologist said today.

The drug is Procaine—widely used as a local anesthetic, kin to the numbing injections a dentist uses on your gums before drilling. It was first used on aging patients in Iron Curtain countries where it was said to have improved both physical and mental vigor.

CONTROVERSY HERE

But in the United States considerable controversy has built up around this sort of use, and tests have been contradictory or inconclusive.

Dr. Robert F. Long, of the St. Peter (Minn.) State Hospital, said he limited his test to the drug's effects on certain mental faculties which he could test. It was also possible, he said, to check on the weight of patients.

He and Dr. Solveig Gislason, a physician, selected two groups of patients from State Hospital Geriatric Building. All were over 65 years of age and chosen as the most disoriented so far as knowing time and place.

BENEFITS SEEN

One group received injections of a 2 per cent solution of Procaine three times a week for four weeks, then a ten-day interval, then another 12-shot series and so on for a year.

The other group received ordinary saline water injections on the same schedule.

There was considerable bias against the drug among the testing staff, Long said in a paper presented to a meeting of the American Psychological Association.

But nevertheless, he said, the injections seemed to improve the orientation, attention and memory for the tested patients.

Over the year, the control group showed a slight decrease in scores on these faculties when tested.

The improvement of the Procaine group was not dramatic, but it was significant, Long said.

At the same time, the Procaine group also showed significant gains in weight after the year, when compared with the control or study group.

Not all of the patients in either group who started the test completed it. At the beginning, each group had 30 aged persons.

At the end of the study, a number had been lost from the study for a number of reasons from death to transfer to other places. Seventeen of the Procaine group and 16 of the saline study group completed the year's test.

RECEIVE BIDS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state public school building authority has received unofficial low bids totaling $559,605 for construction of an addition to a high school in the Tri-Valley joint school district, Schuylkill County.

430 WILL DIE OVER WEEKEND

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council has estimated that between 430 and 520 Americans may die in traffic accidents over the long Labor Day weekend.

The council also said Wednesday that 17,000 to 21,000 persons may suffer injuries disabling them beyond the day of the accident.

The three day holiday will begin at 6 p.m. Friday (local time) and end at midnight Monday. Last year's Labor Day weekend set a record for that holiday with 501 fatalities.

ZANTZINGER TO BE JAILED

HAGERSTOWN, Md. (AP)—Wm. D. Zantzinger failed Wednesday in an attempt to have his manslaughter conviction suspended. He will go to jail for six months and pay a $500 fine for causing the death of a Negro barmaid, Mrs. Hattie Carroll, by striking her with a toy cane at a charity ball in Baltimore.

The 24-year-old Charles County farmer was convicted last June by a three-judge panel which ruled that the woman, suffering from high blood pressure, died as a result of the incident.

Judges D. K. McLaughlin, Irvine Rutledge and Stewart Hamill turned down his plea for a suspended sentence, branding the defendant "immature." The panel did, however, allow him until Sept. 15 to start his sentence so that he can harvest his tobacco crop.

Zantzinger also was fined $100 for assaulting waitress Ethel Hill and $25 for assaulting bellhop George N. Gesell at the same ball.

SGT. YORK HAS GONE HOME

PALL MALL, Tenn. (AP)—Sgt. Alvin York, 75, Medal of Honor winner in World War I, returned from a Nashville hospital to his mountain home near here Wednesday night.

"It's good to get this good old mountain air and mountain water," he said.

Doctors said York would be "just as well at home."

Bedridden for nine years and near death several times in the past year, York was admitted to the hospital the last time on July 8 for treatment of bedsores and later suffered a urinary tract infection.

"He doesn't seem to care much anymore," Mrs. York said. "He just lies there and doesn't talk too much. He used to talk a lot."

Boy Unhurt In Fall From Train

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—An eight-year-old boy fell from a speeding express train near Sarajevo Wednesday and escaped with bruises, the newspaper Politika reported.

Vanča Skubev opened the wrong door while looking for the washroom. Passengers notified the crew who backed up the train and found the boy a half hour later.

Screwball Driver Has Many Dandy Methods To Hike Highway Death Toll Or Cause Awesome Injuries

Editor's Note — If the following article sounds brutal, shocking, unpleasant, that's because it is intended to be brutal, shocking and unpleasant. Perhaps it will make you so angry you will save yourself or someone else from death or hideous injury over the danger-laden Labor Day week-end.

By FRANCIS STILLEY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Go ahead, step on the gas. Turn the old buggy loose and see what she'll really do.

Put a little extra zip into your trip.

It's good for kicks, and might even get you there a few minutes ahead of time.

The worst that can happen to you is you'll get yourself killed. So what?

EVERYBODY DIES

Everybody has to die some time anyway. Why wait? Why not go ahead and do it now, and save time?

You couldn't pick a better occasion than during the Labor Day week-end. Lots of other people will be doing it then also — 430 to 520, the National Safety Council estimates.

You just might help run the figures up to an all-time record. And you'd even get your name in the newspapers, on a list of the dead.

Now, it may be that you would prefer to kill yourself on the highway by some means other than burning up the pavement.

DANDY METHODS

Ah, there are some dandy methods. These will be given you, free of charge, just a bit later.

But maybe you personally are not yet quite ready to cash in, to make your holiday trip a one-way excursion to the undertaker's.

In that case, you can use highway hijinks to achieve some spectacular alternate results.

You can manage to cost the life of your wife, your children or other loved ones and possibly without getting a scratch yourself. Then, too, there's the other fellow and his loved ones. Too bad, eh?

MUCH CAN BE DONE

Even without death, there's a lot that can be done.

You may be able to cause awesome injuries for yourself or others. Injuries which will mean agonizing months or years in hospitals from the torture of shattered bodies, repeated operations and perhaps lifelong paralysis or crippling wounds. Horrible injuries from smashed bones, ripped flesh or fire which often follows car wrecks.

The possibilities are almost endless. But, nothing like variety, huh?

The Safety Council estimates that 17,000 to 21,000 persons — men, women and children in good health just as you are now — will suffer disabling injuries over the Labor Day week-end.

That may not seem like very many in a country of 180 million people — unless you are one of them. However, why not try a new and different experience?

Now for those real nifty driving tricks to get you killed or maimed, aside from the heavy foot on the gas pedal:

1. Pay no attention to red lights or stop signs. Always try to barrel on through a changing light. Boy, this will give you some thrills, if you live long enough in the process.

2. Be a highway cutup. Zoom in and out between other cars, cutting back and forth as much as possible. This works just great whether there is one lane or six.

There is special zest to it when there is just barely enough room to squeeze in between other cars every time you make a move. Maybe they can squeeze you in at the morgue, too.

3. Never pay the slightest attention to other cars on the highway. Do whatever you please and don't let anyone know what your intentions are. After all, as a taxpayer you own the highway. Be helpful if you own a burial plot, also.

4. On highways with only one lane each way, do your passing going up hills so you can't see what may be coming to meet you. This roadhog roulette beats the Russian kind all hollow because you have a chance of knocking off several people with only one shot.

5. If you don't care so much about driving yourself, let John Barleycorn do it for you. He's the best driver of all — or thinks he is. A little booze often can carry you a long way. All the way to eternity.

6. Don't worry about bad brakes and old tires. They may be bad for you, but then, worrying about them is bad for you, too. If you just let them go, maybe you won't have to worry about anything anytime.

7. Practice screwball turns in front of the other fellow whenever you can. This is easy for any screwball at the wheel.

8. Try driving all day long and night as well. It should help cure your insomnia temporarily. Maybe even permanently.

So, there you are. And, maybe, aren't.

Go ahead, step on the gas.

Railroads Post Work Rules Notice

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Work rules notices were removed from bulletin boards by both the Pennsylvania and Reading Railroads Wednesday soon after President Kennedy signed binding arbitration legislation averting a nationwide railroad strike.

The Philadelphia Transportation Co., the Red Arrow Lines and the Yellow Cab Co. dropped plans to add additional service.

ROWLAND NAMED
JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—Roger W. Rowland, president of the New Castle Refractories Co., New Kensington, Pa., and of Corundum Refractories Inc., Massillon, Ohio, was elected Wednesday as a member of the Board of Directors of the parent firm, Joseph Dixon Crucible Co. He will continue as president of the subsidiary companies, which were recently acquired by Joseph Dixon.

PALANCE CAST AS CIRCUS STAR IN FALL SERIES

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—It was suddenly decided last February to make a television series to be called "The Greatest Show On Earth."

A bright young producer, Stanley Colbert, was called in, handed the title—and nine weeks to come up with the idea for a dramatic series plus a pilot show.

Colbert, 35, made his deadline, and "The Greatest Show On Earth" will have its ABC premiere on Sept. 17, a circus tale starring Jack Palance.

The producer explained that developing an hour dramatic show involves, largely, following a time-honored recipe.

"First," he said, "you must have a man—a hero—who is in the center of things and to whom things happen. In our show, it almost had to be the owner of the circus. That's Palance."

Then, he continued, there must be a second character—"Ben Casey's Zorba or Dr. Kildare's Gillespie."

"In television mechanics, there must be a source of secondary pressures on the leading man," he continued. "First, you put the lead in conflict with the guest star. Then you heap on added pressure, as when Zorba says, 'Oh, Ben Casey, you can't walk in and play God.' And finally, you have another pressure added—the girl who wants Casey to treat her like a woman, not a lab technician."

"All hour-long television shows—50 minutes, really—are based on this format," said Colbert. "Except, of course, comedies. It takes just about that long to solve all the problems."

"Greatest Show On Earth," in this classic groove, has Palance playing the man who gets the pressures. His Zorba is Stuart Erwin, playing the circus controller. And, then, of course, there are the guest stars. Colbert believes, however, that he has a big extra going for him—the flavor, excitement and color of a circus background.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Some 450 persons who were among the thousands from the Philadelphia area participating in the civil rights march on Washington held a thanksgiving service early today at City Hall upon their return from Washington.

Nine buses filled with demonstrators arrived at South Penn Square shortly after midnight. The demonstrators circled City Hall twice, still carrying lunch pails and picnic baskets.

Del Shields, a WDAS disc jockey, offered thanks before bowed heads, saying:

"Let us pray that our children will not have to go back to Washington; that our work will bear fruit. We shall walk a little straighter now, a little taller, a little more determined."

Hand-in-hand, four and five abreast, the marchers circled City Hall singing "We Shall Overcome," the anthem of the civil rights movement.

Today In Washington

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
WASHINGTON (AP)—In the news from Washington:

COMPROMISE: Congress has sent President Kennedy legislation authorizing a $5,350,820,400 civilian space program for the current fiscal year.

The spending ceiling approved Wednesday by the House, 248 to 125, and by the Senate by voice vote is a compromise of authorizations voted earlier by the two chambers and is $362 million below the President's request.

Included is $1,147,400,000 for the Apollo project, designed to send astronauts to the moon by 1970.

FLYING POUCHES: Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., says Congress "may be forced to knock some heads together" unless transatlantic military transports find some way of hauling diplomatic pouches on a regular basis.

The Arkansas Democrat expressed amazement Wednesday at testimony by William J. Crockett, deputy undersecretary of state for administration, that diplomatic couriers and their pouches often cannot ride flights of the Military Air Transport Service.

Crockett asked the Senate to add $153,400 to $1,127,800 previously voted by the House so he could send State Department couriers to Europe twice weekly on commercial air lines.

Crockett said MATS regulations let diplomatic couriers aboard only if they were unable to fly by commercial airlines.

PACT PLAN: Teamsters delegates have cleared the way for achievement of a prize goal of union President James R. Hoffa—a uniform, national motor freight labor contract.

Some 400 of the delegates helped set up the machinery Wednesday by approving two resolutions. One sets forth the constitutional basis for negotiation of the uniform contract and procedures for rank and file acceptance. The second provides for appointment of a national policy committee.

The policy group will create a 10-member negotiating committee. These negotiators would meet with management representatives to write the national contract. It would supplant local contracts as they expire next year.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Some 450 persons who were among the thousands from the Philadelphia area participating in the civil rights march on Washington held a thanksgiving service early today at City Hall upon their return from Washington.

Nine buses filled with demonstrators arrived at South Penn Square shortly after midnight. The demonstrators circled City Hall twice, still carrying lunch pails and picnic baskets.

Del Shields, a WDAS disc jockey, offered thanks before bowed heads, saying:

"Let us pray that our children will not have to go back to Washington; that our work will bear fruit. We shall walk a little straighter now, a little taller, a little more determined."

Hand-in-hand, four and five abreast, the marchers circled City Hall singing "We Shall Overcome," the anthem of the civil rights movement.

SHAVING RACE SHARPER WITH GILLETTE IN

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Beatniks are out. But every shaving man is a target in the battle of the chins. All of the big U.S. razor blade makers are now in the stainless steel fracas started more than a year ago by a British invader.

The long lasting blade has been relatively scarce and regarded by some of its users as a status symbol.

The stainless steel blades and their older brothers made of carbon steel are now likely to be engaged in more of an economic battle. The struggle will be keenest between the competitive American makes. And the victory may go to performance, or to retail price or to cost of production and distribution — or to the willingness of the American male to change his ways.

GILLETTE READY

The giant provider of the older and familiar razor blade, the Gillette Company, with about 70 per cent of the American market, says it will enter the stainless steel blade contest in New York and Philadelphia next week and across the nation by October. Merchandising the new multiple shave item since February are Shick (subsidiary of Eversharp) and American Razor (Division of Philip Morris).

Starting the whole thing on this side of the Atlantic was a British sword maker. Blades made by Wilkinson Sword, Ltd., a hit in England, were first imported in March 1962 and sold by American outlets for its better known products, garden tools. Advertised by word of mouth, they caught on fast and were hard to find.

Unemployment Pay Claims Off

HARRISBURG (AP) — Claims for unemployment compensation declined last week.

The Labor and Industry Department reported on Wednesday that continued claims declined by 2,621 to a total 128,836. New claims for unemployment compensation were 20,446, a drop of 2,100 from the previous week.

Continued claims were reduced because of claimants exhausting their benefits, the department said. New claims declined because of fewer layoffs in primary metals, apparel, transportation equipment, electrical machinery and bituminous mining.

But American production methods may soon make them commonplace.

PERSONAL JUDGES

Performance ultimately will be judged by the American males, each one doubtless convinced that his own chin is a special and peculiar problem.

Price differentials, at least at the start of the contest, are these: Wilkinson's usually sell at five for 75 cents or 15 cents a blade. Shick's and American razors' Personna double-edged blades are regularly priced at five for 79 cents. Gillette says it will retail its stainless steel blades at six for 89 cents, making them the cheapest at 14.83 cents a blade. The older, carbon steel, double-edged blades range from 3.5 cents to 6.9 cents a blade.

Production costs are the secrets of the competing companies, but the stainless steel blades are more difficult and more expensive to make. The American firms already had been making stainless steel blades in the mills of their European subsidiaries. Their new or converted American plants are reported capable of turning out many times the number of blades that Wilkinson has been allotting to its American market.

Littlestown BLUE BAND TO REHEARSE

The Littlestown High School Blue Band will have rehearsal this evening from 7 to 8:15 o'clock in preparation for the coming football season.

The August meeting of the Sunshine Class of Grace Lutheran Church, Two Taverns, will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the parish hall.

A public party will be held by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie No. 2226 on Friday at 8 p.m. in the social room of the F.O.E. Home, W. King St.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Harner and family moved recently from their property on M St. into their newly built home on Maryland Ave. Their M St. property has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. Unger, Gentzler Apartments, S. Queen St.

ENTERS HOSPITAL
Cyrus M. Lehigh, 104½ N. Queen St., was admitted on Monday to the Veterans Administration Hospital, Lebanon, for treatment.

Out-of-town visitors on Sunday with M. S. Charles M. Frock, M. St., were Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Yingling, Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Miles Bemiller, Hanover; Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stonestifer.

Mrs. Lloyd R. Reaver, N. Queen St., and Mrs. Norman Conover, Gettysburg R. D., are attending Rural Women's Camp this week at Camp Brule, Sullivan County, N.Y. Reaver and her husband attended the 4-H Roundup, near Towanda, for several days last week. Miss Evelyn Reaver, Mrs. Conover and Mr. and Mrs. Reaver spent the weekend with the latter's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Pauling, Towanda.

The quarterly meeting of the Friendship Circle Class of St. Paul's Lutheran Church will be held at 8 p.m. on Tuesday at the church. The members of group one, Mrs. Harry T. Harner, Mrs. John P. McSherry, Mrs. Walter Shryrock, Mrs. Clarence Mayers, Mrs. Paul Worley and Mrs. A. R. Dalton, will be hostesses.

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Canoga Park Calif., and unbeaten Evansville, Ind., tangle today in the championship round of the Pony League World Series.

Evansville could clinch the championship with a victory but should Canoga Park win, a final game would be required Friday night.

Canoga Park earned its berth with a 2-1 triumph Wednesday over Marietta, Ga.

Purdy Urges Care Over Labor Day

HARRISBURG (AP)—State Police are under orders to make themselves conspicuous during the three-day Labor Day weekend as a means toward reducing highway accidents.

E. Wilson Purdy, police commissioner, issued the order on Wednesday.

At the same time he urged motorists to "drive with extra care, to allow themselves ample time to reach their destination without haste or fatigue, to be courteous to everyone else on the road and to obey all traffic regulations whether there happens to be a policeman nearby or not."

Littlestown CROWN BEAUTY THIS EVENING

Miss Adams County Fireman will be selected and crowned at the annual beauty contest at the Kingsdale Fire Company carnival this evening on the grounds in the rear of the engine house, along the Littlestown-Taneytown Rd. Girls 16 years of age and older will vie for the title.

The winner will receive $75 cash and a loving cup and she will be crowned by the reigning queen, Miss Betty Lou Sell, Littlestown. All entrants will receive gifts. The contestants will parade to organ music.

The Buck Benson Show of radio station WOKR, York, will entertain at the carnival on Friday night. Ox roast suppers will be served by the company Ladies' Auxiliary on Friday, beginning at 6 p.m. and on Saturday, starting at 4 p.m. The meals will be served family style, under shelter, to the public. The Littlestown High School Band, directed by Paul A. Harner, will present a concert on Saturday. The Southland Playboys entertained last evening.

The Junior Choir and Junior High Girls' Class members of Redeemer's United Church of Christ enjoyed a joint picnic supper on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Crouse, Littlestown R. 1. Prior to the supper, the girls' class went swimming at the Roy M. Maitland farm pool, Porters Sidling, Eighteen members of the Junior Choir played volleyball, ping pong, badminton and other lawn games at the Crouse home. Mrs. Crouse is the choir directress. Mrs. Robert H. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Little Jr., are the teachers of the Junior High Girls' Class.

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Edward R. Tharp, Shamokin, has been named to the $10,954 a year post of assistant executive director of the state fish commission.

Tharp's assignment in his new post will be to conduct the state's water safety program. He will take over the job Oct. 14.

The position was created by the General Assembly in 1959, the commission said. It was not filled pending the outcome of legislation to determine whether the commission or the forests and waters department would regulate boating activities in the state.

Gov. Scranton signed into law a bill which retained these powers in the fish commission.

Tharp recently retired as a commander in the Coast Guard.

COURT HEARS DEVELOPMENT CHARTER PLEA

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Common Pleas Court has been asked to grant a charter to the Southeastern Pennsylvania Economic Development Corporation.

The petition Wednesday was the first legal step to implement a two-part program to increase employment and promote the economic development of the five-county Philadelphia area.

The petition defined the purpose of the corporation as "promotion of the economic and general welfare of Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery and Philadelphia Counties."

The corporation, the petition said, will provide planning, engineering and technical assistance to encourage new projects in the areas and to "solicit and receive grants from City Council and the county commissioners of the other counties."

The nonprofit organization will have headquarters in the Philadelphia National Bank Building. Listed as incorporators and directors were R. J. Rinecliff, board chairman of the Philadelphia Electric Co.; Wilfred D. Gillette, president of the Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania; William F. Kelly, president of the First Pennsylvania Banking and Trust Co.; R. Stewart Rauch, president of the Philadelphia Saving Fund Society; and Frederic A. Potts, president of the Philadelphia National Bank.

The second part of the program would be the formation of a Southeastern Pennsylvania development fund which would be a profit-making corporation with stockholders.

TROUBLE DOGS TRIP ON YAWL

BOSTON (AP) — Coast Guard patrols along the Eastern shores where Philip Hansen is piloting his 65-foot yawl from Kennebunkport, Maine to Philadelphia had better keep a sharp eye out because Hansen can't seem to steer clear of difficulty.

The yawl, the Amoret, went aground off Castle Island in Boston Harbor on Wednesday, and Hansen, 47, his two sons, Thomas, 13, and Cary, 12, and Mrs. Judith MacNeille, 27, of Kennebunk and Philadelphia were rescued by the joint efforts of the Boston police and the Coast Guard.

The crew set sail Sunday afternoon but their boat developed rudder trouble as they prepared to put into York Harbor, Maine, and they spent the night adrift.

On Monday, Hansen suffered a heart attack eight miles off Rockport and was taken by a Coast Guard helicopter to Beverly Hospital while his two sons and Mrs. MacNeille were towed to port.

Hansen was discharged Monday night and the voyage continued on Wednesday. He said his latest setback was due to his unfamiliarity with local waters. The party was taken off the sailboat by a police patrol boat, transferred to a Coast Guard vessel, and taken to a Coast Guard station.

Struck Plant's Entrance Choked

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Some 150 persons, gathering in a mass at the entrance of the strike-bound Continental Rubber Co. plant, have prevented re-employment workers from getting in according to the Erie County sheriff.

Sheriff John Coats said members of Local 61 of the United Rubber, Cork, Linoleum and Plastic Workers of America, AFL-CIO, had blocked the entrance of the Erie plant on Tuesday and Wednesday.

He testified Wednesday at a hearing before Erie County Court Judge Elmer L. Evans on a Continental petition requesting sanctions against Local 61 officers.

The strike started July 1 in a dispute over wages.

BLESS MONK AT ST. VINCENT

LATROBE, Pa. (AP)—Ten bishops and 25 abbots will take part in a centuries-old ceremony late this afternoon to bless a 36-year-old monk as head of St. Vincent Monastery.

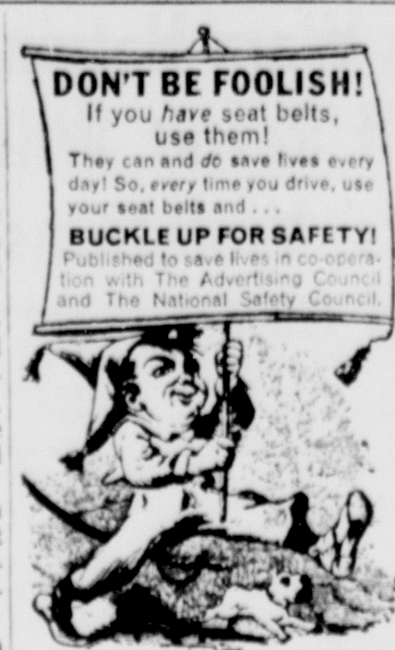

The solemn blessing is the last step in the appointment of the Rt. Rev. Rembert G. Weakland, O.S.B., as coadjutor archbishop at the Benedictine monastery in Latrobe.

Archabbot Weakland, a native of Patton, was elected to the post on June 26. The Vatican confirmed him June 28. He was installed canonically on June 30.

The coadjutor archbishop takes over the official duties of Archbishop Denis O. Strittmatter, O.S.B., who was forced to step down because of ill health. Archabbot Strittmatter retains his title.

Archabbot Weakland had been head of the music department at St. Vincent College before his election.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Chamber of Commerce of Greater Philadelphia announced Wednesday that 24 more business leaders have pledged their efforts in a drive to train 15,000 unemployed persons during the next two years.

Richard C. Bond, chamber president, said this brings the total to more than 100 but that "at least 300" is the ultimate goal.

Udall said the President told him on Wednesday "a country which has our wealth and scientific resources can perfect safety precautions and procedures which will enable us to extract the mineral resources we need without excessive loss of human life."

Udall said the Pennsylvania order in which David Fellin and Henry Throne were rescued after 14 days in a coal mine and the Utah explosion Tuesday which trapped 25 miners 3,200 feet underground, reflect a laxity of safety practices in some segments of the mining industry.

Udall said a study of coal mining safety practices directed earlier this year by Kennedy has been completed and his department will recommend legislation to Congress before the end of the week.

"Initial reports indicate clearly that elementary safety precautions would have prevented most of the serious accidents which have occurred this year," said Udall.

Arable areas of the world supply food for three billion people.

Negro Leaders Warn Nation Whirlwinds Of Revolt Will Follow Rights' Violations

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The discipline and tranquility of Wednesday's civil rights demonstration will not be the permanent condition of the American Negro if he continues to be frustrated.

As they marched and stood in the sun for hours the massive quiescence of perhaps 100,000 Negroes was amazing, when it is remembered how much in American life has been denied them.

KING'S WARNING

The warning of brief quietude, if white Americans continue to deprive Negroes of equal treatment, came from the one Negro who above all has preached non-violent resistance, Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.

He said: "It would be fatal for the nation to overlook the urgency of the moment and to underestimate the determination of the Negro."

PETITIONS FOR REDRESS

All but one of the speakers in this gigantic petition for "redress of grievances" talked with restraint about the desire for equal justice and the Negroes' hope that Congress will help them get it.

The exception was John Lewis, the militant head of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee.

He revealed the bitter impatience just below the surface in himself and others with these words:

CHEAP LEADERS

"This nation is still a place of cheap political leaders who build their careers on immoral compromise and ally themselves with open forms of political, economic and social exploitation.

"What political leader can stand up and say 'my party is the party of principle'? The party of Kennedy is also the party of Eastland. The party of Javits is also the party of Goldwater. Where is our party?"

It is now 95 years and one month since adoption of the 14th Amendment made the Negroes citizens beyond question and guaranteed them protection from any violation of their rights as citizens.

RIGHTS VIOLATED

Their rights have been violated ever since.

King, lest white people assume that because the Negro has endured this until now he is a permanent patsy and Wednesday's peaceful demonstration proved it, told both the crowd and the nation:

"Those who hope the Negro needed to blow off steam and will now be content will have a rude awakening if the nation returns to business as usual.

WHIRLWINDS OF REVOLT

"There will be neither rest nor tranquility in America until the Negro is granted his citizenship rights. The whirlwinds of revolt will continue to shake the foundations of our nation until the bright day of justice emerges."

He could not have given a clearer warning of turmoil unless the wrongs are righted. Not all Negroes have accepted King's philosophy of nonviolent resistance to injustice or evil.

They have shown they don't by some of their violent outbursts since he first began to use non-violent resistance, and successfully, with his peaceful boycott of the Montgomery, Ala., buses in 1955-56.

FEW FOLLOWERS

Only a comparative few at any time have accepted this philosophy from a leader. To believe it requires complete conviction it is the only right means to seek justice.

Millions of Indians practiced nonviolent resistance under the guidance of Mohandas Gandhi without believing it, as their later violence showed. But even Gandhi himself hadn't always practiced it.

In India in his time it just happened to be a necessary technique of resistance to the British when the British had superior power. When the Indians got their independence thousands of Hindus and Moslems slaughtered one another.

In this country racial violence was increasing until the time for Wednesday's civil rights march drew near. Then the violence disappeared as if to let the march dominate the scene. It's over now.

But the discriminations against Negroes are not over. Their determination to batter down the discriminations, as King pointed out, are not over. Therefore more violence can be expected, perhaps on an increasing scale.

Manheim, Jr. and Mrs. Charles Miller and daughter, Doris, Mechanicsburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Albin and son, David, Manheim.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mayer and children, Linda, Walter and Ricky, North Laurel, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Mayer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mayer. Other recent visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wiser and daughter, Stephanie, Edgewood, Md., and Mrs. William Richardson and son, Donald, Quarryville.

David and Galen Yoder, McVeytown, are spending two weeks with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mayer.

Littlestown COUNCIL GETS COMPLAINTS ON SPARK SHOWER FROM FOUNDRY

Littlestown borough council, at its meeting Tuesday evening in the community center building, heard complaints from a committee of residents of Cemetery Street of sparks allegedly emanating from a cupola at the Littlestown Hardware and Foundry Co.

The committee, Jesse Hooper, William Null and Richard Funk, residents of the street, and two of them owners of property recently destroyed by fire, told the council that sparks rise into the air from the cupola used in connection with the melting of metals.

While admitting that it was "not definitely established" that the fire at their properties had been caused by the sparks from the cupola, the committee told council they had taken up the matter with the fire marshal and insurance companies and that they thought Borough Council could recommend to the foundry that certain safety measures be taken.

TO CONSERVE WATER

Council agreed to have Secretary Roger J. Keefe write the Littlestown Hardware and Foundry Co. "informing them of the committee's complaint."

Council took note of the dry summer by asking residents to voluntarily conserve water. According to the minutes of the council session, "Since there is no let up in the dry weather, and before the water situation becomes critical, voluntary conserving of the water may avoid a restriction being placed upon the use thereof."

The council received a letter

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Plank and four daughters were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Plank, Waynesboro.

Michael Chandler, Clinton, Iowa, spent several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Shue and family.

from George Smith, assistant vice president of the Carroll Shoe Co., asking an increase in the water supply and water pressure to the factory. Council held its plans to extend a 10-inch main to Ocker Ave. should give the area where the factory is located a greater flow of water. September 4 at 8 p.m. has been set as the date for a joint meeting of the borough authority and council on water problems.

DISCUSS METER SERVICING

With discussion showing only the street commissioner and his assistant at present are required to turn in monthly time sheets of their work activities, the council voted to include the disposal plant operator among those submitting time sheets to council.

Councilman Howard O. Myers reported on studies of the safety committee concerning the repairing and servicing of parking meters. He noted that while it had originally been thought that the servicing could be done by the police, experience in other communities shows that the training of one person, and making him responsible for the maintenance, provides more efficient service.

In addition the policemen should be instructed so that if the person regularly servicing the meters should be ill or otherwise absent the police could take care of problems occurring during that time. Council voted to appoint the disposal plant operator as service-man for the meters and arranged for instruction for him and the police in servicing the meters.

WORKING ON CODE

The sewer and water committee reported that as a result of a recent meeting with the local plumbers the proposed plumbing code is "nearing completion and will soon be ready for passage."

Council voted to apply for county aid on the basis of general repair of streets instead of applying for the aid for work on one particular street.

A quit claim deed for two 16-foot alleys in the rear of lots facing Newark St. was received from the executors of the estate of the late William Valence Sneeringer.

NO CHANGE IN 140

Council heard answers to letters sent State Senator D. Elmer Hawbaker and J. C. Whalen, district engineer of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, asking information on a proposal to change U. S. Route 140 by bypassing Littlestown.

The replies from Hawbaker and Whalen said they had turned the matter over to Edmund R. Ricker, chief traffic engineer. Ricker's letter accompanying the other replies, said: "Several years ago we received a proposed relocation of U. S. Route 140 and opposed the proposed change. We have presently no plans, nor do we anticipate in the future any changes for U. S. 140 in this area."

Secretary Keefe was instructed to notify the state superintendent of highways at Gettysburg concerning "hazardous conditions" of storm sewers along W. King St. in the area from Rita Marie Ave. west to the borough limits.

The secretary was instructed to notify people responsible for burning of trash and dumping of debris on the proposed Carroll and Atomic Sts.

REPORTS PRESENTED

Boiler Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner was notified to make plans for elimination of storm water drainage on Church St. between the Pennsylvania Railroad and Charles St. The fence at the tennis court was placed on the "immediate agenda" for completion, along with the moving of weeds about town.

The secretary was instructed to notify property holders along Columbus Ave. who have not constructed sidewalks to begin that work.

Treasurer John H. Flickinger reported the following borough balances as of August 2: General borough fund, $18,609.31; water fund, $45,409.08; sewer fund, $54,612.26; parking meter fund, $25,775.91; highway aid fund, $6,460.43.

Expenditures for August totaled $7,482.44.

Secretary Keefe's report as collector of sewer and water rents showed $24,509.56 in sewer rents during the first three-quarters of 1963 and collection of $26,905.88 in water rents during the first half of the year.

2 ATTRACTIVE YOUNG WOMEN FOUND SLAIN

NEW YORK (AP)—Two attractive young women were found slashed to death in their Manhattan apartment Wednesday night.

The bodies were bound hand and foot. Three blood-stained kitchen knives were found in the $250-a-month apartment on East 88th Street, a fashionable neighborhood. Police said the knives belonged in the apartment.

PUT UP FIGHT
The apartment had been ransacked. The bedroom where the bodies were found was "almost torn apart," a detective said, indicating the young women put up a fierce fight.

Killed were: Janice Wylie, 21, blonde editorial employee of Newsweek magazine, daughter of Max Wylie, writer, radio-television producer and director, and a niece of author Philip Wylie.

Emily Hoffert, 23, brunette daughter of Dr. Henry Hoffert, Minneapolis surgeon. She had left home less than a month ago to begin a teaching career next month at Valley Stream, N.Y., on Long Island.

TELLS OF THREATS
They shared the four-room furnished apartment with brunette Patricia Tolles, 23, an editorial employee of Time magazine and daughter of Winton Tolles, dean of Hamilton College at Clinton, N.Y.

A business associate of Miss Wylie's father said she had told employees at Newsweek about "threatening calls from a lunatic who used obscene language."

Miss Tolles said her roommates were getting dressed when she left at 9 a.m. Wednesday for work. Miss Wylie was nude when found dead. Miss Hoffert wore a skirt, blouse, shoes and stockings.

NOTHING STOLEN
Miss Tolles found the apartment in disorder when she returned home about 6:30 p.m. She telephoned Miss Wylie's father, who lives nearby. Wylie rushed to the apartment and found the bodies.

Chief Medical Examiner Milton Halpern said that so far as he could determine—pending autopsies—neither victim had been sexually molested.

Strips of bedsheets had been used to bind the two young women.

There was no sign of forced entry to the apartment, which is on the third floor of a nine-story building.

Miss Tolles said nothing of value seemed to have been stolen.

Herbert Wetzel, Wernersville, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wetzel, J. C. Lochbaum and Dorsey Lochbaugh spent Sunday at Williams Grove Park.

Mrs. Raymond Lochbaum and children, Janet and Linda, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martin, Waynesboro R. D.

The annual reunion of the J. E. Spence family was held Sunday at Caledonia. Beside the parents, there were 13 of their 14 children, 29 of their 30 grandchildren and 13 of their 14 great-grandchildren in attendance. There were also a number of guests.

The Misses Marie and Carol Wetzel are spending several days at Broomall, Pa.

Says Gamblers In Phila. Pay Cops

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Thomas J. Gibbons, former Philadelphia police commissioner, said today that gamblers in America's fourth largest city pay policemen "hundreds of thousands of dollars a year for protection."

"It was that way when I was commissioner (1952-1960)," he said, "and it's that way now."

Gibbons, now director of community relations for the Curtis Publishing Co., made his comments in an interview with the Philadelphia Bulletin.

He said that police arrests "don't make a dent" on the $100-million-a-year gambling business in the Philadelphia metropolitan area.

for a week. Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Hartman and children, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Goulden and daughter and Mrs. Lawrence Kepner attended a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Hartman's great uncle, Clarence Kaylor, in Slanesville, W. Va., last Sunday.

Mrs. Harold Martin and children spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Nafziger and family, Lancaster.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Knipple were Mr. and Mrs. Luther Miller and children, Nora, Clair and Evelyn, Mrs. June Warner and son, Tony,

Let's Look At The Record

INCREASING SCHISMS
Freedom March Cracking Solid Fronts
Labor Leaders Split; Clergy Uncertain

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State
College, Superior

CIVIL RIGHTS have ceased being identified with the one major political party or the other. The party line has been erased. Schisms are also appearing elsewhere.

Republican Senator Jacob K. Javits, of New York, is closer to Democratic Senator Hubert H. Humphrey, of Minnesota, than he is to Republican Senator John G. Towers, of Texas. South Carolina's loudest Democrat, Senator J. Strom Thurmond, is aligned with Republican Barry Goldwater, allegedly the most reactionary man in the Senate.

These may seem to be extreme examples, but one can check the list in both Houses of Congress and find similar inconsistencies repeatedly.

Moreover, the normally solid labor unions front is split as wide open as a Weatherford watermelon at a Southern Baptist picnic. George Meany, president of A. F. of L., — C. I. O., is publicly washing his hands of any labor support for the approaching Freedom March on Washington. He insists abstinence of labor support will in the long run best serve the welfare of colored people.

A Negro leader in one of the smaller unions declares his chief, Meany, is so "noncommittally noncommittal" that he has no comment himself. Within itself, this is a rather eloquent comment.

But the colored people are receiving great comfort from Walter P. Reuther's stand. As the most strident voice of the industrial unions, he is taking pot shots at Meany for dragging his feet on the issue. Reuther promises all-out support to the civil rights objective of the colored people, including an active role in the Freedom March itself.

Many clergymen, most of them colored but many of them whites, are among the leaders of the Freedom March movement. They are getting the headlines. But many of their brethren of the cloth are viewing the civil disobedience, mobocracy philosophy back of civil rights demonstrations in general, and the Freedom March in particular, with raised eyebrows and dark concern.

REV. WILLIAM G. KALLADIAN, in a sermon at the Bedford Park Congregational Church, the Bronx, New York, solemnly declared that the clergymen arrested in connection with civil rights demonstrations were "misusing the position of the church in society."

"It is a peculiar twist," Rev. Kalladian added, "that those in our midst who condemn the lawlessness in the South are the same persons who are unwilling to obey the laws of our city."

This Protestant clergyman further said he felt compelled to "commend the Roman Catholic clergy for refraining from disorderly conduct and for upholding the dignity of the priesthood."

He made it clear that he supported the concept of orderly and peaceful picketing. But he was sure that Christians and clergymen could be more effective by working in their communities for better schools and by seeking greater financial support for vocational training programs in behalf of school dropouts and illiterates.

"Let us not abolish law, but, through Christ, fulfill it," was his concluding plea.

THE SAME SABBATH, the Rev. Dr. Lawrence L. Durgin, from the pulpit of the United Church of Christ (56th St. and Broadway), New York, was sermonizing on more or less the same theme.

Though he has participated in some picketing, and, as of August 5, planning to participate in the August 28 march on Washington, some theological doubts appear to be arising in his mind. He apparently harbors some fears that in religion the "race issue" is receiving an over-emphasis at the expense of the "Christ issue."

To illustrate this point he reminded his hearers that the theme song and most used chant of the "freedom songs" is "We shall not be, we shall not be moved." One verse, he complains, of that spiritual is not being sung — the verse that begins, "Jesus is my Saviour, I shall not be moved."

This suggests the Rev. Dr. has an unvoiced feeling that Christianity and the churches are being used more than they are being followed. This could be why the New York Times reporter sought an amplification in an interview following the sermon. The clergyman was reluctant to define ways in which clergymen might be more specific about their faith in the racial struggle. Nevertheless, Dr. Durgin seemed quite clearly of the opinion that too many clergymen in the civil rights movement were identifying themselves too much with the movement and not enough with the Lord.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Americans now eat more than their own weight in red meats each year... The average of 1963 is expected to pass 166 pounds.

Prosperity note: The United States has about two-thirds of the world's motor vehicles.

Odd legislation: Iceland passed a law requiring all children to learn to swim.

An awful lotta water: The Pacific Ocean is so huge that the continents would easily fit into its 63.8 million square miles.

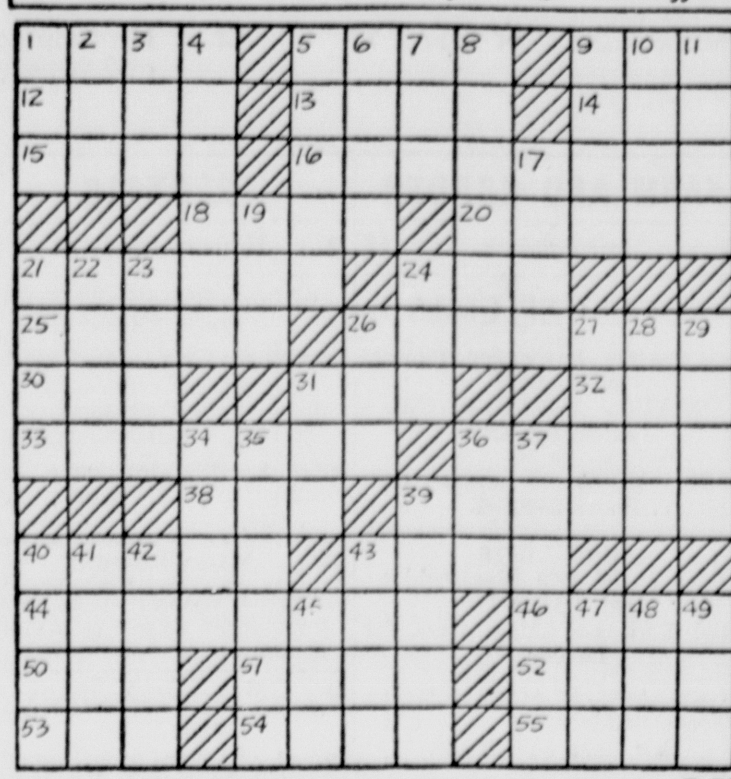

Incidentally, we use about 5 million pounds of water per person annually.

TODAY'S INFLATION

Worth remembering: Comedienne Marion Powers says that today inflation is simply a drop in the buck.

Divided city: Despite the wall

ADMEN REACH NEGRO MARKET IN NEW TREND

By JACK LEFLER

AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Racial integration of advertisements is moving ahead slowly but steadily.

More and more Negro models are appearing alongside white models.

Recently Macy's, the big New York department store chain pictured five hand-holding youngsters in an ad for children's apparel. One was a Negro and another an Oriental.

STRONG PRESSURE

While there is strong pressure from the Negro community for greater employment of Negro models, a real impetus comes from a desire by advertisers to reach the Negro market. This market comprises almost 11 per cent of the U.S. population, or 20 million persons, with $19 billion in annual purchasing power.

Some companies have paid special attention to the Negro market for many years. Sometimes this was a part of a program aimed at many ethnic groups and neighborhoods.

Until recently efforts to reach the Negro market were mainly confined to the Negro press. Now general media are being used.

The trend toward use of Negro models is quite new and the advertising industry is having its problems.

"Many advertisers and agencies don't know how to do it," an industry spokesman said. "A problem is attracting too much attention to the models. After all, you're selling peanut butter, not integration."

"There is a definite increase in the use of Negro models in general advertising," said Richard Scheideker, senior vice president of the American Association of Advertising Agencies. "But you have to use them where appropriate and where they will sell products."

Sons' and is up for a continuing role in another series.

Jerry Mathers, Beaver himself, has virtually retired at 15.

OUTGROWNS SHOW Sheely Fabares outgrew the "Donna Reed Show"; the explanation is that she's "away at college."

Richard Keith, who played young Ricky in the "I Love Lucy" series, is 12 and has had occasional television roles.

Here is news to make you feel your age. Remember Tommy Rettig, first pal of "Lassie"? Now a free-lancer, he's 21 and father of two.
